Making Love Modern Nina Miller, 1999-01-21 In the teens and twenties New York was home to a rich variety of literary subcultures Within these intermingled worlds gender lines and other boundaries were crossed in ways hardly imaginable in previous decades Among the bohemians of Greenwich Village the sophisticates of the Algonquin Round Table and the literati of the Harlem Renaissance certain women found fresh powerful voices through which to speak and write Edna St Vincent Millay and Dorothy Parker are now best remembered for their colorful lives Genevieve Taggard Gwendolyn Bennett and Helene Johnson are hardly remembered at all Yet each made a serious literary contribution to the meaning of modern femininity relationship and selfhood Making Love Modern uncovers the deep historical sensitivity and interest of these women s love poetry Placing their work in the context of subcultures nested within national culture Nina Miller explores the tensions that make this literature so rewarding for contemporary readers A poetry of intimate expression it also functioned powerfully as public assertion The writers themselves were high profile embodiments of femininity the local representatives of New Womanhood within their male centered subcultural worlds Making Love Modern captures the literary lives of these women as well as the complex subcultures they inhabited Harlem the Village and glamorous Midtown In the end the book is as much a study of modernist New York as of women s love poetry during modernism

Making Love to Roget's Wife Ron Koertge, 2001-07-01 In plain unpretentious language with brutal honesty Ron Koertge can meld violence love human ugliness joy and modern depravity into a short lyric that makes us laugh out loud or socks us in the gut His images arrive in giant clown shoes cigars the size of Florida the plastic man s counter length arms or neatly packaged in carefully observed detail as he writes of the black little hearts of ants or an ape s dark and leathery breast Through every poem there runs a constant and sincere humanity a voice that laughs at itself often goads us a bit but always stuns and enlightens us when we discover something of ourselves gambling with the crowd at the racetrack driving from the parking lot of the Mexican restaurant or shambling with the distraught parent leaving the hospital In Making Love to Roget s Wife Ron Koertge offers his best work from twenty three years and a dozen earlier collections With twenty five new poems and over eighty from previous books this selection reawakens us to the presence of a superbly honed comic voice

Non-Elegiac Latin Love Poetry of Late Antiquity Vasileios Pappas,2025-05-19 For about five hundred years between Ovid's death 17 AD and Maximianus Elegies 6th century AD the genre of love elegy disappears Does this mean that love poetry in general was no longer being written This was certainly not the case Poets continued to compose love poetry merely in other forms than elegy This book deals with non elegiac Latin love poetry of Late Antiquity It is the first monograph to focus on the metaliterary interpretation of four non elegiac poetic works the Pervigilium Veneris Ausonius Bissula Reposianus De concubitu Martis et Veneris and the Aegritudo Perdicae The book contains all the required information about these poems including their date authorship structure and literary tradition However its content is predominantly original as it examines subjects that have not previously been discussed in the past These include a the generic interaction between the poems host genre and several guest genres that are present within them b the metaliterary discourse developed in several passages which reveals the metapoetic self consciousness of their poets c their hidden demands for the innovation of love poetry and d their allusive comments on the conservatism of this era Make Love in All the Rooms Michael Morrissey,1978

Choosing Me Bill Weber,2016-03-21 Sex Bombarded with imagery in advertising on TV in the movies sex has become commonplace and ordinary Even in our romantic relationships we have too often let the flames of passion die to a flicker Yet sex is naturally healthy good for loving relationships and even spiritually enriching Rendered in exquisite language the poems in this volume open new windows into the sensual magic and mystery of sexual pleasure They allow us to rediscover the sacredness of both the body and the act of lovemaking Inspired to write these poems by a desire to express the depths of meaning and the physical expression of making love poet Bill Weber paints vivid pictures in words that far transcend old clichés and masterfully express the transcendent dimensions of sexual pleasures Making Love with This Ephraim Mallery,2020-06-13 The poems inside are invitations into experience Immerse yourself in them allow them to become you Be filled So the deliciousness of You in the world can change the world My deep desire is for every poem to be rich with all the meanings that emerge and then to embrace them all Even in paradox Some of the poems may be sensitive reflecting moments of servitude loss sensuality sadness and ecstasy I don't even like to point this out in doing so the way you read it is already influenced by a lens I encourage you to read the poems and phrases that inspire surprise disturb or delight you multiple times I sometimes read them several times in a row aloud or in my mind or both letting the words flow with meaning until meaning disappears A New Library of Poetry and Song William Cullen Bryant,1895 Poets and Poetry John Cann Bailey,1911 Make Love to My Page V. E. Swanigan,2014 This book is an enticing collaboration of erotic love poems written over the past 19 years The poems offer ideas of sensual places and moments filled with passion and love It spans several layers of relationships such as the first time your eyes meet phone passion and consistent romance The poetry is provocative and will bring you back to memories of fantastic fantasies or compel you to make new memories living out your dreams It is intensified love written to steam off the page and into your heart Please take the time to Make Love to the Page
