Rosenwein,Bonnie G. Smith,2012-01-04 Students of Western civilization need more than facts They need to understand the cross cultural global exchanges that shaped Western history to be able to draw connections between the social cultural political economic and intellectual happenings in a given era and to see the West not as a fixed region but a living evolving construct These needs have long been central to The Making of the West The book s chronological narrative emphasizes the wide variety of peoples and cultures that created Western civilization and places them together in a common context enabling students to witness the unfolding of Western history understand change over time and recognize fundamental relationships The School newspaper Vol. [2 issues of vols. 31 and 32]. ,1889 Measuring Political Risk

Charlotte H. Brink,2017-03-02 Offering a fresh transparent approach encompassing new material this invigorating volume measures political risk for instance the risk that foreign investment might face in any country It also demonstrates how progress or regress made in good governance initiatives as conditionalities to aid can be assessed Governments can monitor their own policy environment s and take remedial action if necessary The methodology allows for measurement of previously un quantified soft factors that add to the risks foreign investors might face demonstrating why these factors are of importance to both risk assertive and risk averse investors Features include 103 contextualized measurable risk factors and their 411 risk factor indicators Guidelines to using these factors in order to perform generic macro analyses or micro client project industry specific analyses Explanation of the methodology with which to comprehensively measure the probability of risk occurring in any macro or micro investment climate Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1979-07

Epiestems of Death Pratham Parekh,2017-01-01 Death and dying experiences are not common across human race because humans do not share common cultural heritage and physical environment The fact of death thus can be considered as socially constructed fact abounded by idiosyncratic religious beliefs and rituals existing within social life It is almost impossible to have common consensual understanding of death and dying This book tries to investigate various sources of knowledge about death in multiple disciplines from sociological lenses
