Nationalism and Identity Construction in Central Asia Mariya Y. Omelicheva, 2014-12-17 More than two decades after the break up of the Soviet Union Central Asian republics Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan continue to reexamine and debate whom and what they represent Nationalism and Identity Construction in Central Asia explores the complex and controversial process of identity formation in the region using a 3D framework which stands for Dimensions Dynamics and Directions of nation building The first part of the framework dimensions underscores the new and complex ways in which nationalisms and identities manifest themselves in Central Asia The second part dynamics is premised on the idea that nationalisms and identity construction in the Central Asian republics may indicate some continuities with the past but are more concerned with legitimization of the present power politics in these states It calls for the identification of the main actors strategies tactics interests and reactions to the processes of nationalism and identity construction The third part of the framework directions addresses implications of nationalisms and identity construction in Central Asia for regional and international peace and cooperation Jointly the chapters of the volume address domestic and international level dimensions dynamics and directions of identity formation in Central Asia What unites these works is their shared modern and post modern understanding of nations nationalisms and identities as discursive strategic and tactical formations They are viewed as constructed and imagined and therefore continuously changing but also fragmented and contested

Memory and Ethnicity Dario Miccoli, Emanuela Trevisan Semi, 2013-12-05 In recent times ethnicity and issues of origin have become a hotly debated topic among Jews both in Israel and in the Diaspora This is particularly true both of Jews from the Middle East and North Africa who for years had remained at the margins of the Israeli national narrative as well as the Israeli Palestinian minority Much the same may be said of Diaspora Jews Among the public spaces where ethnicity has become more visible are museums together with heritage centres art galleries and the Internet The aim of Memory and Ethnicity is to investigate how ethnicity is represented and narrated in such spaces How have groups of Jews from such different backgrounds as Morocco Egypt India or the US elaborated their past legacies and traditions vis vis a variety of national narratives and cultural or political ideologies This volume describes the emergence of a new museological scene that mirrors a multi vocal Jewish and Israeli public sphere in which ethnicity has become central to a nation's cultural imagination By considering museums as places of memory where an ethnic communal identity is displayed Memory and Ethnicity analyses which memories are preserved and which suppressed This study sets out to enrich the understanding of Israeli and Jewish cultural history and also to deepen the field of museum studies from little investigated perspectives

Lifestyle Journalism Folker Hanusch, 2014-03-05 Lifestyle journalism has experienced enormous growth in the media over the past two decades but scholars in the fields of journalism and communication studies have so far paid relatively little attention to a field that is still sometimes seen as not real journalism There is now an urgent need for in depth exploration and contextualisation of this field with its increasing relevance for 21st century consumer cultures For the first time this book presents a wide range of studies which have engaged with the field of lifestyle journalism in order to outline the various political economic social and cultural tensions within it Taking a comparative view the collection includes studies covering four continents including countries such as Australia China Norway Denmark Singapore the UK and the USA While keeping the broader lifestyle field in mind the chapters focus on a variety of sub fields such as travel music food health fashion and personal technology journalism This volume provides a fascinating account of the different facets of lifestyle journalism and charts the way forward for a more sustained analysis of the field This book was originally published as a special issue of Journalism Practice Frontiers and Identities Luďa Klusáková, Steven G. Ellis, 2006 Imagology Manfred Beller, Joseph Theodoor Leerssen, 2007 How do national stereotypes emerge To which extent are they determined by historical or ideological circumstances or else by cultural literary or discursive conventions This first inclusive critical compendium on national characterizations and national cultural or ethnic stereotypes contains 120 articles by 73 contributors Its three parts offer 1 a number of in depth survey articles on ethnic and national images in European literatures and cultures over many centuries 2 an encyclopedic survey of the stereotypes and characterizations traditionally ascribed to various ethnicities and nationalities and 3 a conspectus of relevant concepts in various cultural fields and scholarly disciplines The volume as a whole as well as each of the articles has extensive bibliographies for further critical reading Imagology is intended both for students and for senior scholars facilitating not only a first acquaintance with the historical development typology and poetics of national stereotypes but also a deepening of our understanding and analytical perspective by interdisciplinary and comparative contextualization and extensive cross referencing Romanian News, 1951 Re-Location 1-7 Adam Budak, 2004 Re Location 1 7 Shake has among other things shown the work of more than 110 artists from 24 countries held 21 exhibitions over a 3 year period taken place in 8 art centres in 8 countries in Europe and beyond worked with 10 curators produced 3 newsletters published 2 catalogues built 1 website commissioned more than 30 essays by 23 authors some translated into 6 languages by a team of 17 translators produced 1 televised evening broadcast on 2 TV channels Vol 2 p 9 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1996-10 The Current Digest of the Soviet Press, 1951 Bulletin, 1973 New Times, 1962 Yearbook of International Organizations, 1984-12 The New Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1974 Monthly Index of Russian Accessions Library of Congress.
