Native Guard Poems:

Native Guard Natasha Trethewey, 2007-11-06 Winner of the 2007 Pulitzer Prize for Poetry Former U S Poet Laureate
Natasha Trethewey's Native Guard is a deeply personal volume that brings together two legacies of the Deep South Through elegaic verse that honors her mother and tells of her own fraught childhood Natasha Trethewey confronts the racial legacy of her native Deep South where one of the first black regiments The Louisiana Native Guards was called into service during the Civil War The title of the collection refers to the black regiment whose role in the Civil War has been largely overlooked by history As a child in Gulfport Mississippi in the 1960s Trethewey could gaze across the water to the fort on Ship Island where Confederate captives once were guarded by black soldiers serving the Union cause The racial legacy of the South touched Trethewey's life on a much more immediate level too Many of the poems in Native Guard pay loving tribute to her mother whose marriage to a white man was illegal in her native Mississippi in the 1960s Years after her mother's tragic death Trethewey reclaims her memory just as she reclaims the voices of the black soldiers whose service has been all but forgotten Trethewey's resonant and beguiling collection is a haunting conversation between personal experience and national history

A Study Guide for Natasha Trethewey's "Native Guard" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Natasha Trethewey's Native Guard excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs Monument Natasha D. Trethewey, 2018 Longlisted for the 2018 National Book Award for Poetry Trethewey's poems dig beneath the surface of history personal or communal from childhood or from a century ago to explore the human struggles that we all face James H Billington 13th Librarian of Congress Layering joy and urgent defiance against physical and cultural erasure against white supremacy whether intangible or graven in stone Trethewey's work gives pedestal and witness to unsung icons Monument Trethewey's first retrospective draws together verse that delineates the stories of working class African American women a mixed race prostitute one of the first black Civil War regiments mestizo and mulatto figures in Casta paintings Gulf coast victims of Katrina Through the collection inlaid and inextricable winds the poet's own family history of trauma and loss resilience and love In this setting each section each poem drawn from an opus of classics both elegant and necessary weaves and interlocks with those that come before and those that follow As a whole Monument casts new light on the trauma of our national wounds our shared history This is a poet's remarkable labor to source evidence persistence and strength from the past in order to change the very foundation of the vocabulary we use to speak about race gender and our collective future Academy of American Poets chancellor Marilyn Nelson Thrall Natasha D. Trethewey, 2012 Thrall examines the deeply ingrained and often unexamined notions of racial difference across time and space Through a consideration of historical documents and paintings Natasha Trethewey Pulitzer prize winning author of Native Guard highlight the contours and complexities of her relationship with her white father and the ongoing history of race in America The House of Being Natasha Trethewey, 2024-01-01 An exquisite meditation on the geographies we inherit and the metaphors we inhabit from Pulitzer Prize winner and nineteenth U S poet laureate Natasha Trethewey Searching and intimate this impresses Publishers Weekly In a shotgun house in Gulfport Mississippi at the crossroads of Highway 49 the legendary highway of the Blues and Jefferson Street Natasha Trethewey learned to read and write Before the land was a crossroads however it was a pasture a farming settlement where after the Civil War a group of formerly enslaved women men and children made a new home In this intimate and searching meditation Trethewey revisits the geography of her childhood to trace the origins of her writing life born of the need to create new metaphors to inhabit so that my story would not be determined for me She recalls the markers of history and culture that dotted the horizons of her youth the Confederate flags proudly flown throughout Mississippi her gradual understanding of her own identity as the child of a Black mother and a white father and her grandmother s collages lining the hallway offering glimpses of the world as it could be With the clarity of a prophet and the grace of a poet Trethewey offers up a vision of writing as reclamation of our own lives and the stories of the vanished forgotten and erased Conversations with Natasha Trethewey Joan Wylie Hall, 2013-08-28 United States Poet Laureate Natasha Trethewey b 1966 describes her mode as elegiac Although the loss of her murdered mother informs each book Trethewey s range of forms and subjects is wide In compact sonnets elegant villanelles ballad stanzas and free verse she creates monuments to mixed race children of colonial Mexico African American soldiers from the Civil War a beautiful prostitute in 1910 New Orleans and domestic workers from the twentieth century North and South Because her white father and her black mother could not marry legally in Mississippi Trethewey says she was given her subject matter as the daughter of miscegenation A sense of psychological exile is evident from her first collection Domestic Work 2000 to the recent Thrall 2012 Biracial people of the Americas are a major focus of her poetry and her prose book Beyond Katrina a meditation on family community and the natural environment of the Mississippi Gulf Coast The interviews featured within Conversations with Natasha Trethewey provide intriguing artistic and biographical insights into her work The Pulitzer Prize winning poet cites diverse influences from Anne Frank to Seamus Heaney She emotionally acknowledges Rita Dove s large impact and she boldly positions herself in the southern literary tradition of Faulkner and Robert Penn Warren Commenting on Pastoral South and other poems Trethewey guides readers to deeper perception and empathy Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-25 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth

Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry Craig Svonkin, Steven Gould Axelrod, 2023-01-12 With chapters written by leading scholars such as Steven Gould Axelrod Cary Nelson and Marjorie Perloff this comprehensive Handbook explores the full range and diversity of poetry and criticism in 21st century America The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry covers such topics as Major histories and genealogies of post war poetry from the language poets and the Black Arts Movement to New York school and the Beats Poetry identity and community from African American Chicana o and Native American poetry to Queer verse and the poetics of disability Key genres and forms including digital visual documentary and children s poetry Central critical themes economics publishing popular culture ecopoetics translation and biography The book also includes an interview section in which major contemporary poets such as Rae Armantrout and Claudia Rankine reflect on the craft and value of poetry today Reading

Confederate Monuments Maria Seger, 2022-08-24 Winner of a 2023 Edited Collection Award from the South Atlantic Modern Language Association Contributions by Danielle Christmas Joanna Davis McElligatt Garrett Bridger Gilmore Spencer R Herrera Cassandra Jackson Stacie McCormick Maria Seger Randi Lynn Tanglen Brook Thomas Michael C Weisenburg and Lisa Woolfork Reading Confederate Monuments addresses the urgent and vital need for scholars educators and the general public to be able to read and interpret the literal and cultural Confederate monuments pervading life in the contemporary United States The literary and cultural studies scholars featured in this collection engage many different archives and methods demonstrating how to read literal Confederate monuments as texts and in the context of the assortment of literatures that produced and celebrated them They further explore how to read the literary texts advancing and contesting Confederate ideology in the US cultural imaginary then and now as monuments in and of themselves On top of that the essays published here lay bare the cultural and pedagogical work of Confederate monuments and counter monuments divulging how and what they teach their readers as communal and yet contested narratives thereby showing why the persistence of Confederate monuments matters greatly to local and national notions of racial justice and belonging In doing so this collection illustrates what critics of US literature and culture can offer to ongoing scholarly and public discussions about Confederate monuments and memory Even as we remove relocate and recontextualize the physical symbols of the Confederacy dotting the US landscape the complicated histories cultural products and pedagogies of Confederate ideology remain embedded in the national consciousness To disrupt and potentially dismantle these enduring narratives alongside the statues themselves we must be able to recognize analyze and resist them in US life The pieces in this collection position us to think deeply about how and why we should continue that work Form and Substance in Trethewey's Native Guard Susan King Gremillion, 2016 Mortevivum Kimberly Juanita Brown, 2024-02-06 A powerful examination of the unsettling history of photography and its fraught relationship to global antiblackness Since photography's invention black life has been presented as fraught short agonizingly filled with violence and indifferent to intervention living death mortevivum in a series of still frames that refuse a complex humanity In Mortevivum Kimberly Juanita Brown shows us how the visual logic of documentary photography and the cultural legacy of empire have come together to produce the understanding that blackness and suffering and death are inextricable Brown traces this idea from the earliest images of the enslaved to the latest newspaper photographs of black bodies from the United States and South Africa to Haiti and Rwanda documenting the enduring pernicious connection between photography and a global history of antiblackness Photography's history inextricably linked to colonialism and white supremacy is a catalog of othering surveillance and the violence of objectification In the genocide in Rwanda for instance photographs after the fact tell viewers that blackness comes with a corresponding violence that no human intervention can abate In Haiti the first black republic in the Western Hemisphere photographic evidence of its sovereign failure suggests that the formerly enslaved cannot overthrow their masters and survive to tell the tale And in South Africa and the United States a loop of racial violence reminds black subjects of their lower class status mandated via the state Illustrating the global nature of antiblackness that pervades photographic archives of the present and the past Mortevivum reveals how we live in a repetition of imagery signaling who lives and who dies on a gelatin silver print on a page in a book on the cover of newspaper and in the memory of millions The URL for this publication is <https://seeingmortevivum.org> The Mississippi Encyclopedia Ted Ownby, Charles Reagan Wilson, Ann J.
