New Pathways In Psychology Maslow And The Post Freudian Revolution:

New Pathways in Psychology Colin Wilson, 1972 Holism Christian McMillan, Roderick Main, David Henderson, 2019-12-06 Holism Possibilities and Problems brings together leading contributors in a ground breaking discussion of holism The terms holism and holistic arouse strong emotional responses in contemporary culture whether this be negative or positive and the essays in this interdisciplinary collection probe each in its own way the possibilities and problems inherent in thinking holistically Christian McMillan Roderick Main and David Henderson bring together established academics and emerging scholars across subject areas and disciplinary approaches to reveal the multiplicity and complexity of issues involved in holism Divided into four parts the chapters determine key strands of thinking explicitly or implicitly underpinning contemporary holistic thought including what ethical conclusions might most reasonably be drawn from such thought Accessible and diverse this extensive volume contains chapters from the perspective of history ecology psychotherapy poetry mythology and an especially strong representation of continental philosophy and Jungian depth psychology Due to its multi disciplinary nature the book represents an unparalleled discussion of the meanings and implications of holism Written by an innovative and international calibre of contributors this pioneering collection will be essential reading for practitioners in depth psychology and scholars of Jungian studies as well as academics and students of philosophy religious studies spirituality history and the history of ideas The book is a rich resource for the enhancement of critical reflection among all those with an interest in holism Psychological Theories of Religion James Forsyth, 2003 This book surveys the major theorists in the psychology of religion Sigmund Freud C G Jung William James Erich Fromm Gordon Allport Abraham Maslow and Viktor Frankl who are all seminal thinkers and represent the classical theories in this field Each of these theorists presents a more or less comprehensive theory of religion which attempts to give an account of the psychological origin and or value of religion The approach of the book in each case shows how the theory of religion emerges not only from the theorist s psychological theory but also from his own life experience Each chapter contains an introductory overview of the theory biographical material on the theorist his theory of personality his theory of religion and an evaluation of the theory of religion This consistent chapter format discusses the theorists influence on the field points out some developments from and reactions to the theory and raises certain questions in order to stimulate readers own critical responses For individuals who wants to view and better understand religion from the psychological perspective The Founders of Humanistic Psychology Roy Jose Decarvalho, 1991-09-30 This intellectual history narrates the institutionalization of the humanistic current in American psychology and places the thinking of five of its founders Gordon Allport Abraham Maslow Carl Rogers Rollo May and James Bugental in the context of twentieth century psychology The Founders of Humanistic Psychology is the first historical and systematic presentation of humanistic psychology It is also the only study that treats these five thinkers as a unit and places them in the context of history and systems of Western psychology Roy Jose

DeCarvalho begins with a discussion of the political institutions that brought this movement together research facilities grants and intellectual stimulation via seminars conferences and journals The text then introduces the biographies of Allport Maslow Rogers May and Bugental Following chapters detail the shared views of these five founders with emphasis on the philosophical encounter of humanistic psychology with behaviorism psychoanalysis and existentialism DeCarvalho also examines the impact that the neo Freudians Kurt Goldstein and personality and Gestalt psychologies had on the conceptualization of their humanistic psychology The methodology views on human nature and the ethics of humanistic psychology are also discussed Ending with a chronological bibliography of each founder of the movement this book is a valuable research tool for humanistic psychologists as well as graduate and undergraduate students Social workers and psychologists as well as historians and philosophers of the social sciences will also find this an indispensable source of information about the rise of the humanistic movement

The Influence of the Environment in Facilitating Positive Experiences Among Ashram Meditators Peter Andrew Needle,1985

Jurassic Fossils from Jubaland, East Africa Joh Weir,1929 The Search for Authentic Spirituality in Modern Russian Philosophy Tat'iana ĬUr'evna Kochetkova,2007 This book offers an original look at the developing quest for self realization that inspired the Russian Cultural Renaissance at the turn of the twentieth century also called the Silver Age from its origins in Vladimir Solov'ev's theory of Divine Humanity to its present day manifestations This work should appeal to scholars interested in Russian Orthodoxy Russian philosophy contemporary philosophy and religious studies Cultural Renaissance at the turn of the twentieth century also called the Silver Age from its fin de siecle inception until the present day Following the historical periods under consideration the study breaks into three parts the first is concerned with the quest for transcendence in Vladimir Solov'ev's theory of Divine Humanity the second considers the way in which Solov'ev's Silver Age philosophical and poetic followers utilized and developed his ideas about self realization finally the third considers contemporary discussions regarding the possibility of transcendence and self realization This book goes beyond mere historical philosophical curiosity it is an attempt to understand the idea of self realization in a global context

Theories of Personality Jess Feist,Gregory J. Feist,1998 Accurate and authoritative Theories of Personality by Jess and Gregory Feist presents 23 leading theories of personality in a thorough interesting and logical manner The book begins with an introductory chapter designed to acquaint students with the meaning of personality and provide them with a solid foundation for understanding the nature of theory and its crucial contributions to science The next seventeen chapters present twenty three major theories with a fresh approach and a more complete view encompassing a biographical sketch of each theorist related research and applications to real life When appropriate the authors point out ways in which the theorists life experiences may have helped shape her or his theory Feist's Theories of Personality organizes personality theories into four major approaches First it presents the psychodynamic theories of Sigmund Freud Carl Jung Alfred Adler Melanie Klein Margaret Mahler Otto Kernberg Heinz Kohut John Bowlby

Karen Horney Erich Fromm Harry Stack Sullivan and Erik Erikson Next it discusses the learning theories of B F Skinner Albert Bandura Walter Mischel and Julian Rotter The third major approach includes the dispositional theories of Raymond B Cattell Hans Eysenck and Gordon Allport The next section includes the humanistic existential theories of George Kelly Carl Rogers Abraham H Maslow and Rollo May The book concludes with a final word on theorists of personality a summary of their concepts of humanity and an overall evaluation of their theories Communicating Personally Charles M. Rossiter, W. Barnett Pearce, 1975 Abstract Part of a series on speech communication this book presents the authors theory of interpersonal communication This theory introduced in chapter one is based on a continuum of interpersonal communication which ranges from highly impersonal to highly personal Throughout the text the authors have included exercises activities and discussion questions to help the reader use this theory to improve interpersonal communication The chapters address the following topics communication behavior personal communication honesty validation trust alienation psychological health and current research NTSU Books ,1974 Western Conceptions of the Individual Brian Morris, 1991-08 This is a comprehensive study of the varying conceptions of the human subject in the Western intellectual tradition Although informed by an anthropological perspective the author draws on material from all the major intellectual disciplines that have contributed to this tradition and offers biographical and theoretical vignettes of all the major Western scholars By scrutinizing the classical texts of the Western tradition he succeeds in delineating the differing conceptions of the human individual which emerge from these writings and gives a guide to the most important ideas in Western cultural traditions Canadian Psychiatric Association Journal Canadian Psychiatric Association, 1973 Personal and Interpersonal Communication John J. Makay, Beverly A. Gaw, 1975 Religion and Development in Asian Societies ,1974 The American Alcoholic William Madsen, 1974 Personality Theories Robert F. Massey, 1981 Authorities, Deities and Commodities David N. Smith, 1988 Personality Theories Barbara Engler, 1995 The book is designed both to explain the major personality theories and to stimulate critical thinking about them The author has pursued four main objectives To present a clear and concise picture of the major features of each important personality theory To focus on significant ideas and themes that structure the content of the different personality theories To provide criteria to guide the evaluation of each theory To present activities informed by the tenets of each theory that will provide growth in critical thinking skills Pref Contemporary Novelists Noelle Watson, 1991 Contains entries for each author with a biography a list of separately published books and an essay Voices ,1977
