New People Strategies For The British Armed Services:

New People Strategies for the British Armed Forces Alex Alexandrou, Richard Bartle, Richard Holmes, 2002 Based upon an ongoing series of conferences and seminars dealing with human resource management in the British armed forces this study proposes new ways of tackling one of the most contentious of issues facing the military today Military Unionism In The Post-Cold War Era Richard Bartle, Lindy Heinecken, 2006-07-29 Richard Bartle and Lindy Heinecken are acknowledged experts in this area and they bring together a contemporary collection of papers from leading authorities in 12 countries

Cultural Diversity in the Armed Forces Joseph L. Soeters, Jan Van der Meulen, 2007-01-24 This volume explores ethnicity and gender developments in relation to the military In some countries the armed forces have a long history in responding to ethnic diversity while elsewhere it has come up only recently as a policy issue An even handed representation of ethnic minorities in the military is recognized as crucial for enhancing its social legitimacy and professional quality The same can be said about the integration of women in the military which during a few decades across the board has grown into more than just another issue of personnel policies Indeed with regard to gender the symbolism and sensitivities surrounding core identities are at stake as with the presence of gays and lesbians in the military Written by experts in the field the chapters cover fourteen countries around the world the USA Canada Bolivia Ecuador Brazil South Africa Eritrea India Israel Great Britain France Germany Belgium and The Netherlands Taken together the armed forces of these countries offer a fascinating mix of similarities and differences in the ways they try to manage cultural diversity Cultural Diversity in the Armed Forces will be of interest to students and scholars of military studies sociology gender and political science Choice ,2002
