New Perceptions Of Old Appearances In The Art Of Samuel Bak:

New Perceptions of Old Appearances in the Art of Samuel Bak Lawrence L. Langer, 2005-08-17 Samuel Bak's most recent series of paintings New Perceptions of Old Appearances is a tribute to the power of the metaphorical imagination. Using the pear as a substitute image for the familiar apple of Eden, Bak explores the struggle of modern civilization to wrest from our fragile universe a viable mode of communal existence. Bak's pears are stoic in their solidity but vulnerable to decay. In some guises they shine with the beauty of succulent fruit but in others they fall victim to the violence of history and the decay of time. In this book filled with color illustrations, Lawrence L. Langer shows the versatility and uniqueness of Bak's art. His pears play many roles, challenging the viewer to interpret their enigmatic presences without having to search for a single dogmatic meaning. While some laden with promise proclaim the inherent dignity of artistic form, others remind us as they are consumed by fire or sacrificed on strange altars of what Bak has called the ineffaceable tragedy and sadness that has been part of our lot as human creatures during the past hundred years. His images are both ripe with life and haunted by death.

Samuel Bak Samuel Bak, Steve Feinstein, Pucker Gallery, 2004      The Midrashic Impulse and the Contemporary Literary Response to Trauma Monica Osborne, 2017-12-06 Since the end of World War II we have witnessed countless artistic responses to the Holocaust yet we remain unable to adequately address the atrocities. While Theodor Adorno later rescinded his comments on the barbaric nature of writing poetry after Auschwitz, The Midrashic Impulse and the Contemporary Literary Response to Trauma begins with the possibility that he was right that his admonition against poetry warns against employing representational modes that transgress the boundaries of the ethical when it comes to the Holocaust. There is a language other than the language of representation with which we might speak authentically about such atrocities. This study explores what it means for the world of literature to renounce the language of representation and retain the language of witness. Drawing on the work of Emmanuel Levinas, Maurice Blanchot, Geoffrey Hartman, and others, the book focuses on the increasing tendency of contemporary writers to rely on non-representational approaches to storytelling in the context of trauma. This tendency is named the midrashic impulse given its similarity to ancient rabbinic approaches to the silences of the Hebrew Bible through the creation of Midrash.      An Unimaginable Partnership Lawrence L.

Langer, 2022-10-27 In 1995, as Samuel Bak was working on a suite of twenty large paintings eventually entitled Landscape of Jewish Experience, Pucker Gallery reached out to scholar Lawrence L. Langer, who had recently edited Art from the Ashes: A Holocaust Anthology to contribute to the monograph. His willingness to undertake this effort would open a vast experience for both Langer and Bak. For nearly thirty years, they have participated in a creative dance of images and ideas that has expanded both of their visions. Langer has written with great insight and precision about each new body of Bak's art. Bak has in turn been energized by his exchanges with Langer. Together they have given each of us an opportunity to address the fundamental questions of moral choice and our responsibility to unite and not divide and to address the past and behave in a more humane and respectful manner toward one another in the present and future An Unimaginable Partnership gathers these words and images in an impressive and extensive volume Fifty Key Thinkers on the Holocaust and Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven L. Jacobs, 2013-03-01 This unique volume critically discusses the works of fifty of the most influential scholars involved in the study of the Holocaust and genocide Studying each scholar's background and influences the authors examine the ways in which their major works have been received by critics and supporters and analyse each thinker's contributions to the field Key figures discussed range from historians and philosophers to theologians anthropologists art historians and sociologists including Hannah Arendt Christopher Browning Primo Levi Raphael Lemkin Jacques Semelin Saul Friedländer Samantha Power Hans Mommsen Emil Fackenheim Helen Fein Adam Jones Ben Kiernan A thoughtful collection of groundbreaking thinkers this book is an ideal resource for academics students and all those interested in both the emerging and rapidly evolving field of Genocide Studies and the established field of Holocaust Studies WLA, 2010
