The European Union in the Asia-Pacific Weiqing Song, Jianwei Wang, 2019-02-20. Since the mid 1990s the European Union has defined the Asia Pacific as one of its key strategic targets on its ambitious road towards a global power. Over the past decades big changes have taken place on both sides and the wider world. It's high time to evaluate the EU's performance in its Asian policy. In fact the EU is at crossroads with its Asia Pacific policy. On several aspects the EU is compelled to redefine its interests and roles and rethink its strategies and policies towards the dynamic and ever important Asia Pacific region. This volume addresses this theme by elaborating the general context, major issues and countries in the EU's Asia Pacific policy. It covers issue areas of traditional security, economy and trade, public diplomacy and human security and focuses on the EU's relations with China, Japan, the ASEAN countries and Australasia.

The Asia-Pacific, Regionalism and the Global System Christopher M. Dent, Jörn Dosch, 2012-01-01. Dent and Dosch have put together a superb volume that explores new dimensions of the world events for the past five decades and take decrypting the processes of regionalism, global system and world society to a new height. The contributors have enhanced our understanding of how regionalism has been changing when a world society will be created and why East Asia's centrality matters in this unfolding drama.

Policymakers, academics and mass media opinion makers will find the book useful, provocative and refreshing. Eul Soo Pang, Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore. Ever since the Asia Pacific transformed from an institutional desert into one of the most networked areas in the world, questions of the region's future and the future of the global system have become closely intertwined. This volume explores the key issues of regional co-operation, economic and political integration, security relations and international affairs within and across the Asia Pacific. The expert contributors shed critical light on how significant developments are impacting on the global system. In particular, they consider emerging forms of global governance and how the Asia Pacific as a region, individual countries such as China, Japan, South Korea and the US, and regional organisations and forums like APEC are shaping the world. Uniquely, the discussion is not limited to East Asia but also takes Latin America prominently into the equation. This timely book will prove to be a stimulating read for academics, students
