New Universe An Outline Of The Worlds:

New Universe Baker Brownell,2015-07-08 Excerpt from New Universe An Outline of the Worlds in Which We Live The parts of modern thinking have grown faster than the whole The knots nodes the cartilage and limbs of the new knowledge and opinion have gone beyond their general symmetry and form Big hands big feet a new voice every hour are the modern era s appropriate endowment but they are not coordinated They twist and scatter in all directions or bend foolishly in the wrong place like a scarecrow The parts are mighty but the whole of the modem world is still a frail and muddled failure Science for example the practical and the spirit all are of one body but few admit it They are segregated they lie in nodes and isolations and indifference still surrounds them They are set off provincially and made at mutual odds for the sake of minor clarity and convenience Science the practical the spirit all are wagers for one stake of universal size but few ask what it is They are ways to that strange and intimate perplexity that is called the real but few ask how or where Through ancient dust and problems science shuffles contentedly along so long as there are ruts to guide it New worlds are bursting open over the horizon s rim the flare and thrust of new realities and new modes of thinking on them disturb the atmosphere but science on the whole has not yet noticed them There is a deep worn methodology to say where it shall go it tramps on massively and lets it go at that To new tools the practical and social pressures of the world have set man s hands He works them feverishly he works and hurries about new means to living and never finds what living is About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

German national literature and world literature as these have developed through institutions cultural networks and individual authors In the last two decades discussions of world literature literature that resonates beyond its original linguistic and cultural contexts have come increasingly to the forefront of theoretical investigations of literature One reason for the explosion of world literature theory pedagogy and methodology is the difficulty of accomplishing either world literature criticism or world literary history The capaciousness as well as the polylingual and multicultural features of world literature present formidable obstacles to its study and call for a collaborative approach that conjoins a variety of expertise To that end this collection contributes to the critical study of world literature in its textual institutional and translatorial reality while at the same time highlighting a question that has hitherto received insufficient scholarly attention what is the relation between national and world literatures or more specifically in what senses do national literatures systematically participate in or resist world literature
