New Way New Way:

Change Management: the New Way Deborah Salvo, Dutch Holland, 2012-12-14 With 70% of change projects not meeting management expectations can we conclude that the current way of doing change management works well or even works at all Do we need a New Way to make organizational change happen Yes it is time This book identifies ten new ways that can be used to make change management more effectively and efficiently One of the ten ways is the use of the theater metaphor If you want to change a play you must start by selecting and communicating a new script to your theater company If you want to change an organization you must start by communicating to organization members a new vision of where the organization needs to be at some future time If you want to change the play you must put actors under contract for the new play and rehearse them until they can perform their roles perfectly If you want to change an organization workers must be under agreement to perform to new job descriptions and goals and be trained in new work processes and new technology And so it goes Using your life long familiarity with the idea of a play you will be able to make organizational change happen flawlessly This book will show you how to excel at leading change from either a management position or from an assignment as a change professional This book is designed to put managers and change professionals on the same page for leading change using simple practical ideas and metaphors backed by proven bodies of knowledge from management the behavioral sciences and the theater You dont have to be afraid of change any longer Dutchs work offers entertaining and simple solutions that will help you move swiftly and efficiently through the growing pains of organizational change Ken Blanchard author of The Secret and The One Minute Manager A new way to pay old debts. The great duke of Florence. The unnatural combat. The bashful lover Philip Massinger, 1779 Being Up-to-date for the Rebuilding of the Temple Witness Lee, 2002-08-01 The New Testament tells us that as saved ones we have been regenerated in our spirit and that from the time we were saved God has been edifying and building up our spirit Ephesians 2:22 clearly reveals that our spirit is God s dwelling place in us Hence to build up our spirit the individual spirit is to build up God s dwelling place God s temple On the other hand the church is also God s house and God s temple But how do we build up the church It is through all the saved ones encouraging one another and functioning in mutuality according to their fellowship with the Lord and the experiences of life they have had with the Lord in their spirit The Body of Christ is built up through the spiritual development of all the members
