Make Your Own Space Story:

Creating Your Own Space María Davis, 2021-03-04 The relationship between women and houses has always been complex. Many influential writers have used the space of the house to portray women's conflicts with the society of their time. On the one hand, houses can represent a place of physical, psychological, and moral restrictions, and on the other, they often serve as a metaphor for economic freedom and social acceptance. This usage is particularly pronounced in works written in the nineteenth and twentieth century when restrictions on women's roles were changing. Anxieties about space sometimes seem to dominate the literature of both nineteenth-century women and their twentieth-century descendants. The Metaphor of the House in Feminist Literature uses a feminist literary criticism approach in order to examine the use of the house as metaphor in nineteenth and twentieth-century literature.

Achieving Success through Academic Assertiveness Jennifer Moon, 2009-01-13 Academic assertiveness is an essential capability that is required of students who wish to achieve academic and professional success. Written for students who are aiming to achieve college success, Achieving Success through Academic Assertiveness Real life strategies for today's higher education students focuses on the challenges that learners face and encourages positive actions that support triumphs in learning situations. Jennifer Moon creatively explores the importance of this emerging topic and how assertiveness is linked to the process of learning and overall student development, critical thinking, and academic achievement.

Old Brand New Dabito, 2023-08-29 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A deeply personal and compassionate look at home ownership and rentership through more than 50 rooms designed by interior designer, photographer, and Instagram star Dabito. Dabito's work is sculptural and beautiful; everything feels like an art piece. It is elevated yet functional, my fave combo. Jessica Alba, Designer, photographer, artist, blogger, and passionate vintage hunter. Dabito is beloved on social media for his creative use of color, space, and maximalist design style. Old Brand New offers readers actionable advice to layer spaces with meaning through refreshing decor and bold hues, whether you're signing a lease or renovating or buying your first home. Illustrated with photographs of Dabito's many design projects and inspiring snaps from his travels, this book's chapters are each supplemented with how-to guides for weekend-friendly projects, large and small. He includes helpful advice on hanging a gallery wall, to styling bookshelves, repurposing furniture, and designing a vacation-inspired outdoor patio space. Along with easy daylong projects, Dabito also tackles deep renovations with his down-to-the-studs ADU accessory dwelling unit project in Los Angeles, where he changed an awkward laundry and storage room into his dream guest house. The Power Color Alchemist also provides failproof color palettes for achieving a cohesive color story in your own space. In this deeply personal book, Dabito draws on his family's immigrant experiences to discuss the challenges he's faced finding a sense of security through designing his personal surroundings. Providing a new perspective on homeownership and rentership, Dabito reaches and empowers readers who rarely feel spoken to. Through his love of design, color, and maximalism, Dabito offers much-needed insight to the value of home and the meaning of family. The National
