Creating Memory and Cultural Identity in African American Trauma Fiction Patricia San José Rico, 2019-03-19

How do contemporary African American authors relate trauma memory and the recovery of the past with the processes of cultural and identity formation in African American communities Patricia San Jos analyses a variety of novels by authors like Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor and David Bradley and explores these works as valuable instruments for the disclosure giving voice and public recognition of African American collective and historical trauma

Freedom and Responsibility in Neoplatonist Thought Ursula Coope, 2020-04-16 The Neoplatonists have a perfectionist view of freedom an entity is free to the extent that it succeeds in making itself good Free entities are wholly in control of themselves they are self determining self constituting and self knowing Neoplatonist philosophers argue that such freedom is only possible for non bodily things The human soul is free insofar as it rises above bodily things and engages in intellection but when it turns its desires to bodily things it is drawn under the sway of fate and becomes enslaved Ursula Coope discusses this notion of freedom and its relation to questions about responsibility She explains the important role of notions of self reflexivity in Neoplatonist accounts of both freedom and responsibility In Part I Coope sets out the puzzles Neoplatonist philosophers face about freedom and responsibility and explains how these puzzles arise from earlier discussions Part II explores the metaphysical underpinnings of the Neoplatonist notion of freedom concentrating especially on the views of Plotinus and Proclus In what sense if any is the ultimate first principle of everything the One free If everything else is under this ultimate first principle how can anything other than the One be free What is the connection between freedom and nonbodiliness Finally Coope considers in Part III questions about responsibility arising from this perfectionist view of freedom Why are human beings responsible for their behaviour in a way that other animals are not If we are enslaved when we act viciously how can we be to blame for our vicious actions and choices

Free Will İlham Dilman, 1999 What is the place of human free will in our lives if all our actions are the result of some other cause Does our processing unconscious beliefs or desires make us less free Is our free will necessarily restricted if we do not choose our own beliefs The debate between free will and its opposing doctrine determinism is one of the key issues in philosophy Free Will An historical and philosophical introduction provides a comprehensive introduction to this highly important question and examines the contributions made by sixteen of the most outstanding thinkers from the time of early Greece to the twentieth century Homer Sophocles Plato Aristotle St Augustine St Thomas Aquinas Descartes Spinoza Hume Kant Schopenhauer Freud Sartre Weil Wittgenstein Moore İlham Dilman brings together all the dimensions of the problem of free will with examples from literature ethics and psychoanalysis Drawing out valuable insights from both sides of the free will determinism divide and he provides an accessible and highly readable introduction to this perennial problem

Modern Political Thought David Wootton, 1996-01-01 Presents unabridged works and substantive abridgments in preeminent translations along with balanced lucid sophisticated introductions This book includes a wide and balanced selection of many of the more important texts of modern political thought To its great credit it provides pertinent excerpts from frequently neglected authors such as Calvin and Hume which it nicely juxtaposes appear to be good and the introductions to each section help to situate the writers in their historical and intellectual context and to alert students to some of the central issues that arise in the texts This book offers an economical and useful approach to modern political thought     Promises and Agreements Hanoch Sheinman,2011-03-17 Comprising 16 original contributions this is the first collection of philosophical papers on promises and agreements topics which are enjoying a renaissance in social moral and legal philosophy     The Broadview Anthology of Social and Political Thought ,

Leadership Joseph Crawford,2023-05 The role of a leader has changed drastically since scholars began theorizing about the modern leader Contemporary society has and is continuing to evolve Existing leadership theories need to adapt to be relevant to the expectations of leaders now That is new leadership theories emerge in their place This book presents new ideas in leadership in the 21st century context as well as new models that explain how individuals enact good leadership This book serves as an opportunity to critique or defend current understandings of leadership and propose new evidence based and theory driven insights into leadership Leadership is understood as more complex than an individual influencing another Within the broad domains of leadership there are leaders followers leadership processes followership processes teams dyads relationships and context Each of these is critical in defining what it is to be a good leader in increasingly complex professional and personal environments This book will encourage authors to make compelling arguments not for how leadership is and has been but rather for how good leadership should be     Happiness and Marriage Elizabeth Towne,2022-09-04 DigiCat Publishing presents to you this special edition of Happiness and Marriage by Elizabeth Towne DigiCat Publishing considers every written word to be a legacy of humankind Every DigiCat book has been carefully reproduced for republishing in a new modern format The books are available in print as well as ebooks DigiCat hopes you will treat this work with the acknowledgment and passion it deserves as a classic of world literature     The Practice of Christian Perfection.
