Stagg,2023-03-20 Prints of a New Kind details the political strategies and scandals that inspired the first generation of American caricaturists to share news and opinions with their audiences in shockingly radical ways Complementing studies on British and European printmaking this book is a survey and catalogue of all known American political caricatures created in the country s transformative early years as the nation sought to define itself in relation to European models of governance and artistry Allison Stagg examines printed caricatures that mocked events reported in newspapers and politicians in the United States fledgling government reactions captured in the personal papers of the politicians being satirized and the lives of the artists who satirized them Stagg s work fills a large gap in early American scholarship one that has escaped thorough art historical attention because of the rarity of extant images and the lack of understanding of how these images fit into their political context Featuring 125 images many published here for the first time since their original appearance and a comprehensive appendix that includes a checklist of caricature prints with dates titles artists references and other essential information Prints of a New Kind will be welcomed by scholars and students of early American history and art history as well as visual material and print culture

With a telling selection of illustrations this book deploys the techniques of close reading and political contextualization to demonstrate the aesthetic and ideological clout of a neglected tranche of satirical prints and periodicals dismissed as ineffectual by historians or distasteful by contemporaries. The prime exhibits are the work of Robert Seymour and C J Grant giving acerbic comic edge to the case for reform against class and state oppression and the excesses of the monarchical regime under the young Queen Victoria      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1927      Editor & Publisher, 1924 The fourth estate      The American Hebrew, 1926      The Nast's Weekly, 1892      The American Architect and Building News, 1902      Fourth Estate, 1926      English Caricature and Satire on Napoleon I John Ashton, 1888      Napoleon in Caricature 1795-1821 Alexander Meyrick Broadley, John Holland Rose, 1911      The International Studio Charles Holme, Guy Eglington, Peyton Boswell, William Bernard McCormick, Henry James Whigham, 1908
