Historical Association. Meeting,1980 The Mind of the Soviet Fighting Man ,1984-02-17 This is a systematic comparative attitudinal study of the Soviet fighting man The author interviewed emigre ex Soviet servicemen from all branches and of all ranks to determine their feelings about their military experience Each of the three major sections of the work addresses one branch of the service detailing the answers of respondents to eighty one questions The resulting sets of data are divided into twelve categories dealing with various aspects of military service in the Soviet Union general views of military service
