Williams,2002 Williams Soka U California has compiled nine essays that examine rhetoric and composition from the 1960s to the present its emergence as a field the influence of linguistics and psychology in shaping an empirical agenda the waning of that influence as the field aligned itself more closely with the goals and objectives of traditional English departments the shift toward postmodern perspectives on language place and self and a move toward post postmodern concerns This historical study begins with reminiscences by Richard Lloyd Jones W Ross Winterowd Frank J D Angelo and John Warnock The second section examines those changes in detail For example Williams makes the connection between rhetoric and democracy especially the influence of liberal democracy on rhetoric in society He argues that because our liberal democracy is so focused on entertainment rhetoric and composition must examine its role in relation to it Annotation copyrighted by Book
