Cash transfers and intimate partner violence: A research view on design and implementation for risk mitigation and prevention Peterman, Amber Roy, Shalini, 2022-06-15 Cash transfers are a widely used form of social protection providing effective and efficient ways to reduce poverty and support well being. Evidence suggests that cash transfers can reduce intimate partner violence IPV across a wide range of programs and contexts yet there is little guidance for design or implementation components in cash transfer programs that would maximize these reductions. Based on research into pathways of impact between cash transfers and IPV this issue brief offers recommendations on cash transfer programming to increase gender sensitivity and responsiveness to IPV prevention.

The Internet Literacy Handbook Betsy Burdick, Chris

Coakley, Janice Patricia Richardson, 2006-01-01 Over the past decade Internet technology now merging into that of mobile technology has transformed the multiple facets of life in society across the world changing work and leisure patterns and placing greater demands on us as active democratic citizens. The Internet literacy handbook intended for parents, teachers and young people throughout Europe is a guide to exploiting to the fullest this complex network of information and communication. The handbook is comprised of 21 fact sheets each covering a particular topic on Internet use from searching for information to setting up blogs through to e shopping and e citizenship. These fact sheets offer teachers and parents sufficient technical know how to allow them to share young people's and children's voyages through communication technology. They highlight ethical and safety considerations, give insight into added value in education, provide ideas for constructive activities in class or at home, share best practice in Internet use and provide a wealth of definitions and links to sites that give practical examples and further in depth information.

How and Why to Read and Create Children's Digital Books

Natalia Kucirkova, 2018-12-03 How and Why to Read and Create Children's Digital Books outlines effective ways of using digital books in early years and primary classrooms and specifies the educational potential of using digital books and apps in physical spaces and virtual communities. With a particular focus on apps and personalised reading, Natalia Kucirkova combines theory and practice to argue that personalised reading is only truly personalised when it is created or co-created by reading communities. Divided into two parts, Part I suggests criteria to evaluate the educational quality of digital books and practical strategies for their use in the classroom. Specific attention is paid to the ways in which digital books can support individual children's strengths and difficulties, digital literacies, language and communication skills. Part II explores digital books created by children, their caregivers, teachers and librarians, and Kucirkova also offers insights into how smart toys, tangibles and augmented virtual reality tools can enrich children's reading for pleasure. How and Why to Read and Create Children's Digital Books is of interest to an international readership ranging from trainee or established teachers to MA level students and researchers, as well as designers, librarians and publishers. All are inspired to approach children's reading on and with screens with an agentic perspective of creating and sharing. Praise for How and Why to Read and Create Children's Digital Books: This is an exciting and innovative book, not least because it is freely available to read online, but because its origins are in primary practice. The author is an accomplished storyteller and whether you know as yet little about the value of digital literacy in the storymaking process or you are an accomplished digital player, this book is full of evidence informed ideas, explanations and inspiration. Liz Chamberlain, Open University. At a time when children's reading is increasingly on screen, many teachers, parents and carers are seeking practical, straightforward guidance on how to support children's engagement with digital books. This volume, written by the leading expert on personalised e-books, is packed with app reviews.

suggestions and insights from recent international research all underpinned by careful analysis of digital book features and recognition of reading as a social and cultural practice Providing accessible guidance on finding choosing sharing and creating digital books it will be welcomed by those excited by the possibilities of enthusing children about reading in the digital age Cathy Burnett Professor of Literacy and Education Sheffield Hallam University
