Jorge Luis Borges

Obras Completas Iv 19751988:

Jorge Luis Borges Maria da Penha Campos Fernandes,2005 You Might be Able to Get There from Here Mark F. Frisch,2004 This book details the immense impact that Jorge Luis Borges has had on the thinking and writing of the twentieth century and how many have misunderstood that impact It highlights how his symbols techniques parody irony and artful ambiguity in his fiction essays and poems force us to question what we can know with certainty what is real and what is dream and who we are and thus define what has become the core of the postmodern vision The book explores Borges s distinctly Latin American postmodern pluralism It details how this pluralism has informed the postmodern discussions of the self love history feminism and politics and has influenced writers in the U S and Latin America Throughout it argues that the Argentine writer avoids the nihilism and chaos of a radical relativism that many have come to associate with postmodernism Rather his vision affirms values and a search for positive knowledge Mark Frisch is Associate Professor in the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures at Duquesne University Selected Non-Fictions Jorge Luis Borges,2000-11-01 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award in Criticism The first comprehensive selection in any language of the non fiction much of it appearing here in English for the first time of one of literature s most fertile and original minds San Francisco Chronicle A Penguin Classics Deluxe Edition with flaps and deckle edged paper It will come as a surprise to many readers that the greater part of Jorge Luis Borges s extraordinary writing was not in the genres of fiction or poetry but in various forms of non fiction prose His thousands of pages of essays reviews prologues lectures and notes on politics and culture though revered in Latin America and Europe as among his finest work have scarcely been translated into English Selected Non Fictions presents a Borges almost entirely unknown to American readers Here is the dazzling metaphysician speculating on the nature of time and reality and the inventions of heaven and hell and the almost superhumanly erudite reader of the world s literatures from Homer to Ray Bradbury James Joyce to Lady Murasaki Here too the political Borges taking courageous stands against fascism antisemitism and the Per n dictatorship Borges the movie critic on King Kong and Citizen Kane and the Borgesian art of dubbing and Borges the regular columnist for the Argentine equivalent of the Ladies Home Journal writing hilarious book reviews and capsule biographies of modern writers Like the Aleph in his famous story the magical point in a basement in Buenos Aires from which one can view everything in the world Borges s non fictions are a vortex for seemingly the entire universe Dante and Ellery Queen Shakespeare and the Kabbalah the history of angels and the history of tango the Buddha Bette Davis and the Dionne Quints Selected Non Fictions presents more than 160 of these astonishing writings from his youthful manifestos to his last meditations on his favorite books More than a hundred of these pieces have never before appeared in English and all have been rendered in brilliant new translations by Esther Allen Suzanne Jill Levine and Eliot Weinberger This unique selection presents Borges as at once a deceptively self effacing guide to the universe and the inventor of a universe that is an indispensable guide to Borges For more than seventy five years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 2 000 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Beyond Individualism Lois Parkinson Zamora,2026-01-11 A sweeping analysis of archetypal realism in Latin American literature and art Beyond Individualism examines the portrayal of collective identities over two centuries in Latin American literature and visual art Lois Parkinson Zamora shows that many authors and artists are less concerned with singular selves than with selves in relation less with individual autonomy than with communal affiliation Their works sometimes situated under the labels Neobaroque magical realism Surrealism Expressionism and idealism resist the kind of psychological realism typical of European and North American novels moving instead toward a wholly new kind of fiction Zamora calls this new Latin American form archetypal realism because its characters represent entities larger than themselves They may embody entire communities cultures families religious orders or ideal planets Through deft readings of collective characters in fiction by Gabriel García Márquez Isabel Allende Jorge Luis Borges and more alongside the art of Diego Rivera Remedios Varo and Xul Solar Zamora reveals a modernity based not on Enlightenment conceptions of selfhood but on community collectivity and kinship

Borges, between History and Eternity Hernán Díaz,2012-08-02 That Borges is one of the key figures in 20th century literature is beyond debate The reasons behind this claim however are a matter of contention In Latin America he is read as someone who reorganized the canon questioned literary hierarchies and redefined the role of marginal literatures On the other hand in the rest of the world most readers and dictionaries tend to identify the adjective Borgesian with intricate metaphysical puzzles and labyrinthine speculations of universal reach completely detached from particular traditions One reading is context saturated while the other is context deprived Oddly enough these institutional and transcendental approaches have not been pitched against each other in a critical way Borges between History and Eternity brings these perspectives together by considering key aspects of Borges's work the reciprocal determinations of politics philosophy and literature the simultaneously confining and emancipating nature of language and the incipient program for a literature of the Americas

Madness and Irrationality in Spanish and Latin American Literature and Culture Lloyd Hughes Davies, 2020-06-01 The subject matter is topical madness has universal and enduring appeal The positive aspects of the irrational particularly its potential for cultural renewal are given more prominence than has been the case in the past The coverage is wide ranging new critical angles enrich our understanding of major writers while the appeal of lesser known figures is highlighted often by means of a comparative perspective

Obras completas Jorge Luis Borges, 1989 He dedicado una parte de mi vida a las letras y creo que una forma de felicidad es la lectura otra forma de felicidad menor es la creacion poetica o lo que llamamos creacion que es una mezcla de olvido y recuerdo de lo que hemos leído Emerson coincide con Montaigne en el hecho de que debemos leer unicamente lo que nos agrada que un libro tiene que ser una forma de felicidad Le debemos tanto a las letras Yo he tratado mas de releer que de leer creo que releer es mas importante que leer salvo que para releer se necesita haber leído Yo tengo ese culto del libro
