MODULE 1 – CURRICULUM IN SCHOOLS

(Teaching & Learning Activities)

Activity 1. Glatthorn have identified seven types of curriculum operating in the school system. In relation to this, identify the characteristics and importance of these based on your understanding.

CURRICULUM	CHARACTERISTICS	IMPORTANCE
Recommended	Recommended Curriculum basically gives the academic standards of one curriculum planning. It sets the direction of an institutions as its provides the learning content, the learning content and the ideal type of objectives to be met.	Recommended Curriculum provides the basic framework for the curriculum. It embodies all the missions, vision and goals of one educational systems.
Written	Written Curriculum details the vital parts of learning. From planning the subjects up to the production of books and modules. It also must contain the needs and interests of the students by using lesson planning and using books in teaching-learning process.	Written Curriculum concretized the aims and goals of Recommended Curriculum. It offers concrete and systematic planning towards the delivery of lesson from the educational management up to the classroom setting.
Taught	Taught Curriculum is the actual application and execution of what is in the guidelines. That's why it must possess learning activities and assessment tools needed to ensure that the learning competencies must be met. The most important of this part is the achievement of learning content.	Taught Curriculum gave assurances that the mission and goals of the curriculum are directly deliver towards the learner. In day by day imparting of lesson, taught curriculum was being established.
Supported	Supported Curriculum is the overall resources needed for the accomplishment of the lesson. Whenever teachers are giving learning activities, resources like books facilities, computers must be visible so that students can be comfortable in teaching. This supported curriculum also	Supported Curriculum provides the support management system toward the learning. In order to achieve the effective and acceptable teaching-learning process, a variety of materials inside and outside of classroom must be present.
