Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print, 1995 The Athenaeum, 1858 Encyclopaedia Britannica: Gichtel-Harmonium Hugh Chisholm, 1910 This eleventh edition was developed during the encyclopaedia's transition from a British to an American publication. Some of its articles were written by the best known scholars of the time and it is considered to be a landmark encyclopaedia for scholarship and literary style. The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Fra to Har, 1910 The Encyclopedia Britannica, 1910 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926 The Encyclopædia Britannica, 1910 The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Gichtel-Harmonium, 1910 The last great work of the age of reason the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view. Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics. Despite its occasional ugliness the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained within its volumes. It is especially strong in its biographical entries. These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians scholars.
