Arts sponsored by the International Reading Association and the National Council of Teachers of English offers an integrated perspective on the teaching of the English language arts and a comprehensive overview of research in the field. Prominent scholars, researchers, and professional leaders provide historical and theoretical perspectives about teaching the language arts, focus on bodies of research that influence decision making within the teaching of the language arts, explore the environments for language arts teaching, reflect on methods and materials for instruction. Reflecting important recent developments in the field, the Third Edition is restructured, updated, and includes many new contributors. More emphasis is given in this edition to the learner, multiple texts, learning and sharing one's knowledge. A Companion Website new for this edition provides PowerPoint slides highlighting the main points of each chapter.

Science Denial Gale M. Sinatra, Barbara K. Hofer, 2021-06-22 How do individuals decide whether to accept human causes of climate change, vaccinate their children, or wear a mask during a pandemic? In Science Denial: Why It Happens and What to Do About It, psychologists Gale Sinatra and Barbara Hofer identify the problem of science denial and offer tools for addressing it.

Ballads of the North, Medieval to Modern Sandra Ballif Straubhaar, Richard Firth Green, 2019-04-15 This volume is intended as a belated but heartfelt thank you and Gedenkschrift to the late Larry Syndergaard, 1936-2015, long-time professor of English at Western Michigan University and Fellow of the Kommission für Volksdichtung International Ballad Commission. Larry's contributions, down the decades, to ballad studies, particularly Scandinavian and Anglophone, included dozens of papers and articles as well as his supremely useful book English Translations of the Scandinavian Medieval Ballads. As David Atkinson and Thomas A. McKean of the Kommission have written, May 2015 Larry was a sound scholar with a penetrating mind which he used to support, encourage, and befriend others rather than show off his own knowledge. He will be remembered for his contributions to international balladry, especially for providing a bridge between the English and Scandinavian language ballads. Larry's particular fascination with the vernacular ballads of the northern medieval world are reflected in this collection. Topics here range from plot elements such as demonic whales, otherworldly antagonists, and mer people to thematic issues of genre, religion, and sexual mores. As a tribute to the global influence of Larry's scholarship and the broad academic interest in medieval ballads, the essays in this volume were contributed by twelve international scholars of narrative song based in Europe, North America, and Australia.

Children's Learning in a Digital World Teena Willoughby, Eileen Wood, 2008-01-03 Children's Learning in a Digital World presents exciting and challenging new ideas from international scholars on the impact of computers, the Internet, and video games on children's learning. Features exciting new research which reassesses the threats posed by technology to the social, emotional, and physical development of children. Examines the impact of technology in both formal and informal learning contexts, covering a range of technologies relevant to students and researchers as well as professional educators. Presents key information on the social and cultural issues that affect technology use, in addition to the impact on children's learning. Includes research from an international range of contributors.

Enjoying the Melody of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Digital Literacy Fan Favorite

In a world taken by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous communication, the melodic elegance and mental symphony created by the published term frequently fade into the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and distractions that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of Digital Literacy Fan Favorite an enchanting literary prize filled with raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional trip, well unraveling the hidden melodies and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this emotional review, we can examine the book's main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
