Are we living in a transnational world

The 900 percent rise in the use of transnationalism in publications since 1995 testifies to a defining phenomenon

International migration has increased two thirds since 1980 and the global circulation of capital media and culture has intensified provoking nationalist political backlash worldwide

This collection of studies on exile social science indigeneity gender activism music and dance gangs sex work narcofiction and cinema examines how transnational forces influence racial difference national identity immigrant exclusion state power and cultural expression in the Americas

It explores how the physical and symbolic movement of humans and their artifacts shapes ideas and challenges accepted notions of national and conceptual boundaries among them

By addressing the impact of digital technologies on spatialization by challenging emerging conventions on transnationalism and by fostering interdisciplinary exchange the book enriches our understanding of transnational lives and provides tools for exploring the transnational turn

Global Sources Electronics , 2007 Hardware Retailing , 2009 Feminist Political Ecology and the Economics of Care Christine Bauhardt, Wendy Harcourt, 2018-12-07 This book envisages a different form of our economies where care work and care full relationships are central to social and cultural life

It sets out a feminist vision of a caring economy and asks what needs to change economically and ecologically in our conceptual approaches and our daily lives as we learn to care for each other and non human others

Bringing together authors from 11 countries also representing institutions from 8 countries this edited collection sets out the challenges for gender aware economies based on an ethics of care for people and the environment in an original and engaging way The book aims to break down the assumed inseparability of economic growth and social prosperity and natural resource exploitation while not romanticising social material relations to nature The authors explore diverse understandings of care through a range of analytical approaches contexts and case studies and pays particular attention to the complicated nexus between re productivity nature womanhood and care It includes strong contributions on community economies everyday practices of care the politics of place and care of non human others as well as an engagement on concepts such as wealth sustainability food sovereignty body politics naturecultures and technoscience Feminist Political Ecology and the Economics of Care is aimed at all those interested in what feminist theory and practice brings to today s major political economic and environmental debates around sustainability alternatives to economic development and gender power relations
