Teaching for Equity, Justice, and Antiracism with Digital Literacy Practices Meghan E. Barnes, Rick Marlatt, 2024-05-30 To embrace today's culturally and linguistically diverse secondary English Language Arts ELA classrooms this text presents ways in which teachers can use digital tools in the service of antiracist teaching and developing equity oriented mindsets in teaching and learning. Addressing how the use of digital tools and literacy practices can be woven into current ELA curricula and with consistent sections each chapter covers a different aspect of digital tool use including multimodal texts, critical media literacies, connection building, and digital composing. Understanding that no classroom is a monolith, Barnes and Marlatt's timely text presents practical applications and resources suitable for different environments including urban and rural contexts. The volume is essential reading in courses on ELA literacy methods and multicultural education. A

The Appendix serves as an annotated bibliography. Global Perspectives on Digital Literature Torsa Ghosal, 2023-06-22 Global Perspectives on Digital Literature: A Critical Introduction for the Twenty First Century explores how digital literary forms shape and are shaped by aesthetic and political exchanges happening across languages and nations. The book understands global as a mode of comparative thinking and argues for considering various forms of digital literature, the popular, the avant garde, and the participatory, as realizing and producing global thought in the twenty first century. Attending to issues of both political and aesthetic representation, the book includes a diverse group of contributors and a wide ranging corpus of texts composed in a variety of languages and regions including East and South Asia, parts of Europe, Latin America, North America, Australia, and Western Africa. The book's contributors adopt an array of interpretive approaches to make visible new connections and possibilities engendered by cross cultural encounters. Among other topics, they reflect on the shifting conditions for production and distribution of literature, participatory cultures, and technological affordances of Web 2.0, the ever changing dynamics of global and local forces, and fundamental questions such as What do we mean when we talk about literature today and What is the future of literature?

Literary Awards Julian Harrington, AI, 2025-05-06 Literary Awards examines the significant role of international literary prizes as cultural gatekeepers influencing global literary trends and shaping perceptions of good literature. These awards, including the Nobel Prize in Literature, the Booker Prize, and the Prix Goncourt, often dictate the flow of cultural capital and impact literary canons. The book reveals how factors beyond pure artistic merit, such as political considerations and market forces, affect these accolades. Did you know that these awards can act as tools of cultural diplomacy influencing international relations through literature. The book offers a historical overview tracing the evolution of literary prizes from national systems to global phenomena. It analyzes how post colonialism, globalization and the rise of a global literary market have shaped these awards. By examining specific case studies and incorporating interviews with authors and publishers, Literary Awards argues that these prizes while powerful are not neutral arbiters of literary quality. The book progresses from introducing key concepts like cultural capital to analyzing specific awards and discussing ethical implications, providing a comprehensive analysis of the literary awards landscape. Essays that Changed Australia Esther Anatolitis, 2024-11-12. Since the 1940s Meanjin essays have set the national cultural agenda. Arthur Phillips' idea of cultural cringe has become a household word instantly conveying Australians' sense of place in the world while expressing our frustrations and our ambitions. Yet very few of us know it came from an essay first published in Meanjin. Over half a century later Chelsea Watego's 2021 Always Bet on Black powerfully roars with the fire of a manifesto. Hilary Charlesworth's 1992 A Law of One's Own challenges Australia's legal system with a formidable feminist ethic. Tim Rowse's 1978 Heaven and a Hills Hoist passionately defends suburbia. David Yencken's 1988 Creative City sparks a global urban planning movement with artists at the centre. This anthology brings together twenty impactful Meanjin essays for the first time. An introduction by editor Esther Anatolitis offers critical context and scrutiny, illustrating how profoundly Meanjin essays have changed Australia. Young People in a Digitalised World Europarat, 2018. Youth participation in the digitalised world is nowadays a topic of high interest in the public sphere. The authors of this publication aim to bring new perspectives and varied visions to the key questions of understanding how young people interact with all the opportunities the digital space has to offer and how they can use this space for causes relevant not only for themselves but also for the democratisation of the societies in which they live. By doing so the authors strive to build knowledge on this topic, illustrating how the digitalisation of contemporary European societies simultaneously offers significant opportunities and poses considerable challenges.
