Methods For Intercultural Communication Research:

Methods for Intercultural Communication Research William B. Gudykunst, Young Yun Kim, 1984-04 The methodology behind intercultural communication research has been largely neglected by scholars of intercultural communication. The aim of this volume is to advance the study of intercultural communication and move away from the current abstract stage of development. The editors have collected contributions which examine the skills necessary to have a firm grounding in general methodological issues research techniques statistics methods for doing comparative sociology and methods of traditional anthropology. Essays also deal with problems arising from such research and the sociology of knowledge of intercultural communication as opposed to cross cultural communication. Two features make this volume exceptional Research Methods in Intercultural Communication Zhu Hua, 2016-01-19 Research Methods in Intercultural Communication introduces and contextualizes the most important methodological issues in the field for upper level undergraduate and graduate students. Examples of these issues are which paradigms and how to research multilingually, interculturally and ethnically. Provides the first dedicated and most comprehensive volume on research methods in intercultural communication research in the last 30 years. Explains new and emerging methods as well as more established ones. These include Matched Guise Technique, Discourse Completion Task, Critical Incident Technique, Critical Discourse Analysis, Ethnography, Virtual Ethnography, Corpus Analysis, Multimodality, Conversation Analysis, Narrative Analysis, Questionnaire and Interview. Assists readers in determining the most suitable method for various research questions, conceptualizing the research process, interpreting results and drawing conclusions. Supports students from start to finish with key terms, suggestions for further reading, research summaries and sound guidance from experienced scholars and researchers.

Methods for Intercultural Communications Research William B. Gudykunst, Young Yun Kim, 1984 Intercultural Communication James W. Neuliep, 2016-12-27 In the fully updated Seventh Edition of Intercultural Communication: A Contextual Approach best-selling author James W. Neuliep provides a clear contextual model visually depicted by a series of concentric circles for examining communication within cultural, microcultural, environmental, sociorelational and perceptual contexts. Students are first introduced to the broadest context, the cultural component of the model, and progress chapter by chapter through the model to the most specific dimensions of communication. Each chapter focuses on one context and explores the combination of factors within that context, including setting, situation and circumstances. Highlighting values, ethnicity, physical geography and attitudes, the book examines means of interaction, including body language, eye contact and exchange of words, as well as the stages of relationships, cross cultural management, intercultural conflict and culture shock.

Intercultural Communication Marshall R. Singer, 1987 Politics within Parentheses Georgina Gabor, 2017-08-21 The book purports to mediate between various culturally determined profiles of the discipline of Communication Studies. While it directs the reader's attention to landmark American texts in intercultural communication, it also signals the potential to make reading a relational praxis thus writing a way out of the disciplinary meta narratives of identification Through its focus on studies which employ critical or auto ethnographic methods the book represents a mediator of cultural meanings Its unique approach resides in the offering of a personal incursion through the texts under scrutiny which allows the reader a pathway a practical orientation towards criticism in general and the appropriate means to perform it Perception & Identity in Intercultural Communication Marshall R. Singer,1998 This dynamic revision is updated and retitled to more accurately reflect its content In it Singer explores the communication process and the manner in which perception and identity affect communication on every level of interaction Interpersonal intergroup and international From his analysis of cultural and group identities each individual develops he argues convincingly that all individuals are culturally unique and that all communication therefore is to some degree intercultural Effective Intercultural Communication Alexis Tan,2015-11-05
