Mica Buffalo Hunter:

Comes a Painted Horse G.M. Eichin, 2014-09-02 Comes a Painted Horse tells the tale of Christian faith in 19th century America. It opens with the story of John Long Waters, son of a Cherokee chief, who is forced along the Trail of Tears with his people. After nearly losing his own life, John discovers his Christian faith through his rescuer John's faith and devotion to God, which are passed down to his son Micah Red Horse. Micah faces trials of his own: a grown man Micah and his family find food, shelter, and friendship with the Heideggers, a family of German immigrants. Though from different backgrounds, a bond of Christian faith forms between the families. However, when tragedy strikes the Heidegger family, Micah finds himself torn between his desire to seek vengeance and a faith that prohibits revenge. In G. M. Eichin's debut novel, Christians will be reminded to keep their faith even when things seem most unclear, because God always has a plan. Electrical Installation Record, 1929

Hellwig, 2015-01-28 This critical study analyzes major concepts in the travel literature of Mark Twain and notes how his oeuvre, including his classic works of fiction, revolves around travel as a central issue. The book focuses especially on his representations of time, place, and identity in the travel works Roughing It, A Tramp Abroad, The Innocents Abroad, Life on the Mississippi, and Following the Equator. All receive an in-depth analysis, noting Twain's strong sense of nostalgia for the disappearing American frontier, his growing concern over the assimilation of Native American cultures, and his continual search for a sense of personal and national identity. One appendix provides a complete list of the travel literature contained in Twain's personal library. Papers Relative to the Exploration of the Country Between Lake Superior and the Red River Settlement Canada.
