Modern Hebrew:

The Revival of Classical Tongue Jack Fellman, 2011-07-19 CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SOCIOLOGY OF LANGUAGE brings to students researchers and practitioners in all of the social and language related sciences carefully selected book length publications dealing with sociolinguistic theory methods findings and applications It approaches the study of language in society in its broadest sense as a truly international and interdisciplinary field in which various approaches theoretical and empirical supplement and complement each other The series invites the attention of linguists language teachers of all interests sociologists political scientists anthropologists historians etc to the development of the sociology of language

Modern Hebrew for Beginners Esther Raizen, 2016-01-15 Modern Hebrew for Beginners which is now revised and updated and Modern Hebrew for Intermediate Students are the core of a multimedia program for the college level Hebrew classroom developed at the University of Texas at Austin in the early 2000s Within an intensive framework of instruction that assumes six weekly hours in the classroom the program provides for two semesters of instruction at the end of which most successful students will reach the intermediate mid or intermediate high levels of proficiency in speaking and reading and some will reach advanced low proficiency as defined by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages ACTFL In addition to a variety of written exercises the workbook includes vocabulary lists reading selections discussions of cultural topics illustrations of grammar points notes on registers suggestions for class and individual activities and glossaries The workbook is complemented by a website <http://www.laits.utexas.edu/hebrew> that provides short video segments originally scripted and filmed in Israel and the United States vocabulary flashcards with sound interactive exercises on topics included in the workbook sound files parallel to the reading selections in the workbook and additional materials that enhance the learning experience The stability of the workbook combined with the dynamic nature of the website and the internet searches the students are directed to conduct allows language instructors to reshape the curriculum and adapt it to the needs of their students and the goals of their programs

A History of Modern Hebrew Literature (1785-1930) Joseph Klausner, 1972

Modern Hebrew Norman Berdichevsky, 2016-03-21 Ben Yehuda's vision of a modern Hebrew eventually came to animate a large part of the Jewish world and gave new confidence and pride to Jewish youth during the most difficult period of modern history infusing Zionism with a dynamic cultural content This book examines the many changes that occurred in the transition to Modern Hebrew acquainting new students of the language with its role as a model for other national revivals and explaining how it overcame many obstacles to become a spoken vernacular The author deals primarily with the social and political use of the language and does not cover literature Also discussed are the dilemmas facing the language arising from the fact that Israelis and Jews in the Diaspora don't speak the same language while Israeli Arabs and Jews often do

Historical Continuity in the Emergence of Modern Hebrew Yael Reshef, 2019-11-13 Historical Continuity in the Emergence of Modern Hebrew offers a new perspective on the emergence processes of Modern Hebrew and its relationship to earlier forms of Hebrew Based on a textual examination of select case studies of language use throughout the modernization of Hebrew this book shows that due to the unconventional sociolinguistic circumstances in the budding speech community linguistic processes did not necessarily evolve in a linear manner blurring the distinction between true and apparent historical continuity The emergent language s standardization involved the restructuring of linguistic habits that had initially taken root among the first speakers often leading to a retreat from early contact induced or non classical phenomena Yael Reshef demonstrates that as a result superficial similarity to earlier forms of Hebrew did not necessarily stem from continuity and deviation from canonical Hebrew features does not necessarily stem from change

Morphophonemics of Modern Hebrew (Routledge Revivals) Noam Chomsky, 2013-01-11 Routledge Revivals presents a reissue of Noam Chomsky s MA thesis written in 1951 and first published in 1979 Morphophonemics of Modern Hebrew is a landmark study in linguistics and generative phonology which provides not only an analysis of morphophonemics but of the entire grammar of Modern Hebrew from syntax to phonology Professor Chomsky s goal in this thesis is nothing less than a complete generative grammar of the Hebrew language This work is of singular importance as it contains the genesis of the author s work in the field of generative grammar which has had such a profound impact upon the study of linguistics This reissue of a truly pioneering work will be of great interest to all those concerned with generative grammar and its origins and with the progression of thought of one of the greatest minds of our time

Modern Hebrew: An Essential Grammar Lewis Glinert, 2017-03-16 This fourth edition of Hebrew An Essential Grammar includes expanded coverage of some of the key areas of Hebrew grammar including roots adverbs and nouns Additional examples have been added throughout to further clarify many of the grammar points with illustrations from current usage The Grammar serves as a reference source for the learner or user of Hebrew irrespective of level by setting out the complexities of the language in short readable sections that are clear and free from jargon It is ideal both for independent study and for students on taught course

Modern Hebrew for Intermediate Students Esther Raizen, 2016-01-15 Modern Hebrew for Intermediate Students which is now revised and updated and Modern Hebrew for Beginners are the core of a multimedia program for the college level Hebrew classroom developed at the University of Texas at Austin in the early 2000s Within an intensive framework of instruction that assumes six weekly hours in the classroom the program provides for two semesters of instruction at the end of which most successful students will reach the intermediate mid or intermediate high levels of proficiency in speaking and reading and some will reach advanced low proficiency as defined by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages ACTFL In addition to a variety of written exercises the workbook includes vocabulary lists reading selections discussions of cultural topics illustrations of grammar points notes on registers suggestions for class and individual activities and glossaries The workbook is complemented by a website <http://www.laits.utexas.edu/hebrew> that provides short video segments originally scripted and filmed in Israel and the United States vocabulary flashcards with sound interactive exercises on topics included in the workbook sound files parallel to the reading selections in the workbook and additional materials that enhance the learning experience The stability of the workbook combined with the dynamic nature of the website and the internet searches the students are directed to conduct allows language instructors to reshape the curriculum and adapt it to the needs of their students and the goals of their programs

The Grammar of Modern Hebrew Lewis Glinert, 2004-11-11 A reference book on Modern Hebrew morphology and syntax this describes the language as it is really spoken and written in Israel today The author pays particular attention to functional distinctions giving equal weight to colloquial and formal usage

The Divine in Modern Hebrew Literature Neta Stahl, 2020 Demonstrating the pervasive presence of God in modern Hebrew literature this book explores the qualities that twentieth century Hebrew writers attributed to the divine and examines their functions against the simplistic dichotomy between religious and secular literature The volume follows both chronological and thematic paths offering a panoramic and multi layered analysis of the various strategies in which modern Hebrew writers from the turn of the 19th century through the 21st century pursued in their attempt to represent the divine in the face of metaphysical theological and representational challenges Modern Hebrew literature emerged during the nineteenth century as part of the Haskalah Jewish Enlightenment movement which attempted to break from the traditional modes of Jewish intellectual and social life The Hebrew literature that arose in this period embraced the rebellious nature of the Haskalah and is therefore commonly characterized as secular in nature defying Orthodoxy and rejecting the old Hebrew God Examining these radical changes in modern Jewish literature on the divine this volume is a key text for scholars and students interested in modern Hebrew literature religion literature and Jewish studies

Modern Hebrew Fiction Gershon Shaked, Yael Lotan, Emily Miller Budick, Jessica Cohen, 2008-05-01 Gershon Shaked's history of modern Hebrew fiction traces the emergence and development of a literature against all odds from its European roots in the 1880s when it had neither a country nor a spoken language to the flowering of a literary culture on Israeli soil

A Reference Grammar of Modern Hebrew Edna Amir Coffin, Shmuel Bolozky, 2005-02-03 A Reference Grammar of Modern Hebrew provides a clearly structured and accessible guide to all aspects of contemporary Hebrew grammar Systematically organised it presents the basic structures of the language looking at grammatical categories phrases expressions and the construction of clauses and sentences Specialised linguistic terminology is kept to a minimum and verb and noun tables are provided as well as a comprehensive index of terms making this both a useful teaching resource and an easy to use reference tool for those wishing to look up specific details of the language

Usage-Based Studies in Modern Hebrew Ruth A. Berman, 2020-03-18 The goal of the volume is to shed fresh light on Modern Hebrew from perspectives aimed at readers interested in the domains of general linguistics typology and Semitic studies Starting with chapters that provide background information on the evolution and sociolinguistic setting of the language the bulk of the book is devoted to usage based studies of the morphology lexicon and syntax of current Hebrew Based primarily on original analyses of authentic spoken and online materials these studies reflect varied theoretical frames of reference that are largely model neutral in approach To this end the book presents a functionally motivated dynamic approach to actual usage rather than providing strictly structuralist or formal characterizations of particular linguistic systems Such a perspective is particularly important in the case of a language undergoing accelerated processes of change in which the gap between prescriptive dictates of the Hebrew Language Establishment and the actual usage of educated literate but non expert speaker writers of current Hebrew is constantly on the rise Modern Hebrew Harry Blumberg, Mordecai Henry Lewittes, 1952 Word

Systems in Modern Hebrew Aphek, Tobin, 2023-09-20 The Modern Hebrew Poem Itself Stanley Burnshaw, 2003 A collection of modern Hebrew poetry that presents the poems in the original Hebrew with an English phonetic transcription

Modern Hebrew Book Shula Gilboa, 2004 This is an introduction to reading writing and speaking Modern Hebrew It is suitable for a complete beginner or for someone who has some rusty Hebrew The book covers all the language and situations needed for a trip to Israel whether on business or pleasure The course is very communication centred and the emphasis throughout is on speaking and being understood in practical everyday situations New grammar is presented through dialogues and there is plenty of opportunity to practise and check understanding throughout The Hebrew Script is introduced right from the start with transliteration for the early units to help with reading and pronunciation Culture notes accompany the text and there is a two way vocabulary listing at the end of the book This is a completely new book written by a leading teacher of Modern Hebrew as a Foreign Language There is a double CD to accompany the book which can be bought separately 0340 812877 or with the book in a pack 0340 812869
