Modern Criticism and Theory Nigel Wood, David Lodge, 2014-06-11 This third edition of Modern Criticism and Theory represents a major expansion on its previous incarnations with some twenty five new pieces or essays included This expansion has two principal purposes Firstly in keeping with the collection s aim to reflect contemporary preoccupations the reader has expanded forward to include such newly emergent considerations as ecocriticism and post theory Secondly with the aim of presenting as broad an account of modern theory as possible the reader expands backwards to to take in exemplary pieces by formative writers and thinkers of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries such as Marx Freud and Virginia Woolf This radical expansion of content is prefaced by a wide ranging introduction which provides a rationale for the collection and demonstrates how connections can be made between competing theories and critical schools The purpose of the collection remains that of introducing the reader to the guiding concepts of contemporary literary and cultural debate It does so by presenting substantial extracts from seminal thinkers and surrounding them with the contextual materials necessary to a full understanding Each selection has a headnote which gives biographical details of the author and provides suggestions for further reading and footnotes that help explain difficult references The collection is ordered both historically and thematically and readers are encouraged to draw for themselves connections between essays and theories Modern Criticism and Theory has long been regarded as a necessary collection Now revised for the twenty first century it goes further and provides students and the general reader with a wide ranging survey of the complex landscape of modern theory and a critical assessment of the way we think and live in the world today Modern Criticism Walter E.

Sutton, Walter Sutton, 1965 Modern Criticism and Theory David Lodge, 1988 A Reader aims to provide within the covers of a single book a selection of important and representative work from all the major theoretical schools or tendencies in contemporary criticism and to place them before the reader in two alternative orders one historical the other thematic

Modern Criticism Walter Sutton, Richard Foster, 1976      Modern Criticism and Theory David Lodge, Nigel Wood, 2013      Modern Literary Criticism and Theory Rafey Habib, 2008 Exploring the works of a diverse group of 20th century writers including D H Lawrence H L Mencken Jean Paul Sartre and Jacques Derrida this book provides an accessible scholarly introduction to modern literary theory and criticism placing various modes of criticism in their historical and intellectual contexts      Cleanth Brooks and the Rise of Modern Criticism Mark Royden Winchell, 1996 During a career that spanned sixty years Cleanth Brooks was involved in most of the major controversies facing the humanities from the 1930s until his death in 1994 He was arguably the most important American literary critic of the mid twentieth century Because it is impossible to understand modern literary criticism apart from Cleanth Brooks or Cleanth Brooks apart from modern literary criticism Mark Royden Winchell gives us not only an account of one man s influence but also a survey of literary criticism in twentieth century America More than any other individual Brooks helped steer literary study away from historical and philological scholarship by emphasizing the autonomy of the text He applied the methods of what came to be called the New Criticism not only to the modernist works for which these methods were created but to the entire canon of English poetry from John Donne to William Butler Yeats In his many critical books especially The Well Wrought Urn and the textbooks he edited with Robert Penn Warren and others Brooks taught several generations of students how to read literature without prejudice or preconception      The Places of Early Modern Criticism Gavin Alexander, Emma Gilby, Alexander Marr, 2021-04-29 What is criticism And where is it to be found Thinking about literature and the visual arts is found in many places in treatises apologies and paragoni in prefaces letters and essays in commentaries editions reading notes and commonplace books in images sculptures and built spaces within or on the thresholds of works of poetry and visual art It is situated between different disciplines and methods Critical ideas and methods come into England from other countries and take root in particular locations the court the Inns of Court the theatre the great house the printer s shop the university The practice of criticism is transplanted to the Americas and attempts to articulate the place of poetry in a new world And commonplaces of classical poetics and rhetoric serve both to connect and to measure the space between different critical discourses Tracing the history of the development of early modern thinking about literature and the visual arts requires consideration of various kinds of place material textual geographical and the practices particular to those places it also requires that those different places be brought into dialogue with each other This book brings together scholars working in departments of English modern languages and art history to look at the many different places of early modern criticism It argues polemically for the necessity of looking afresh at the scope of criticism and at what happens on its margins and for interrogating our own critical practices and disciplinary methods by investigating their history      Modern Criticism Walter Sutton, Richard Foster, 1965      A History of Modern Criticism: 1750-1950: American criticism, 1900-1950 René Wellek, 1955      Modern Criticism And Theory: A Reader, 2/E Lodge, 2002      Coleridge and Modern Criticism A.
