Modern Art in America Walter Pach, 2013-03 Modern Art in America 1908-68 William C. Agee, 2017-09-18 A radical re evaluation of American modernism through four generations of artists and their work now in paperback That rarity of rarities an opinionated but not eccentric scholarly history by a veteran museum curator whose every page crackles with original thinking and bears the stamp of a preternaturally sharp eye Excellent reproductions and crisp typography complement the lucid prose Wall Street Journal Twentieth century art in America has long been understood in two very separate distinct halves pre World War II often considered as inferior and provincial and the triumphant international post war work that made a complete break with everything that went before Agee discovers exciting new connections between artists and artworks which strongly suggest that 1945 was not such a dividing line in art history after all His fresh research offers an innovative approach and a brilliant take on art history

Duncan and Marjorie Phillips and America's First Museum of Modern Art Pamela

Carter-Birken, 2021-07-06 He was born to privilege and sought the world of art She lived at the center of that world a working artist encouraged by the famous artists in her extended family Together Duncan Phillips and Marjorie Acker Phillips founded The Phillips Collection in Washington D C the first museum of modern art in America It opened in the grand Phillips family home in 1921 eight years before New York City's Museum of Modern Art and only a few weeks after they wed Duncan took the lead in developing the collection and showcasing it Marjorie kept space and time to paint Duncan considered Marjorie a partner in the museum even though she was not directly involved in all purchasing and presentation decisions To him her influence was omnipresent Although Duncan's writings on artists and art history were widely published he chose not to provide much instruction for visitors to the museum Instead he combined signature methods of displaying art which live on at The Phillips Collection Phillips had viewers in mind when he hung American art with European art or art of the past with modern art and he frequently rearranged works to stimulate fresh encounters With unfettered access to archival material author Pamela Carter Birken argues that The Phillips Collection's relevancy comes from Duncan Phillips's commitment to providing optimal conditions for personal exploration of art In depth collecting of certain artists was one of Phillips's methods of encouraging independent thinking in viewers Paintings by Pierre Bonnard Arthur Dove Georgia O'Keeffe John Marin Jacob Lawrence and Mark Rothko provide testament to the power of America's first museum of modern art Made in U.S.A.
