The Making of Modern Egypt Sir Auckland Colvin, 1906 Sovereign Debt and International Financial Control Ali Coşkun Tunçer, 2015-08-26 This book revisits an important chapter of financial history in the Middle East and the Balkans from 1870 1914 During this period capital flows in the form of sovereign debt increased rapidly throughout the region The spiral of heavy government borrowing eventually culminated in defaults on foreign obligations in the Ottoman Empire 1875 Egypt 1876 Greece 1893 and Serbia 1895 In all four cases introducing international financial control over the finances of the debtor states became the prevalent form of dealing with defaults The different cases of international financial control became increasingly refined and they marked important milestones in the evolution of the global governance of sovereign debt before 1914 For the defaulting states however the immediate impact of international financial control was infringement of sovereignty The extent of international financial control and the borrowing capacity of debtor states varied in each case as well as the degree of resistance towards it This book documents the characteristics of international financial control in a comparative perspective It relates sovereign debt default and international financial control to political and fiscal systems and raises questions about the tension between national sovereignty and global capital It sheds light on the impact of international financial control on the long term credibility and fiscal capacity of the debtor states in question The author demonstrates that the governments decisions to borrow internationally and their attitudes towards international financial control were heavily influenced by domestic political and fiscal factors

A History of Ancient Egypt, Volume 3 John Romer, 2023-05-25 The final chapter in the definitive three volume history of the world's first known state Archaeologist John Romer has spent a lifetime chronicling the history of Ancient Egypt and here he tells the epic story of an era dominated by titans of the popular imagination the radical iconoclast Akhenaten the boy king Tutankhamun and the all conquering Ramesses II But heroes do not forge history by themselves This was also a time of international trade cultural exchange and sophisticated art even in the face of violent change Alongside his visionary new history of this the most famous period in the long history of Ancient Egypt Romer turns a critical eye on Egyptology itself Paying close attention to the evidence he corrects prevailing narratives which cast the New Kingdom as an imperial state power in the European mould. Instead he reveals through broken artefacts in ruined workshops or preserved letters between a tomb builder and his son a culture more beautiful and beguiling than we could have imagined. Romer carefully reconstructs the real story of the New Kingdom as evidenced in the archaeological record and the result the final volume of a life long project secures his status as Ancient Egypt's finest chronicler. Sovereign Debt Diplomacies Pierre Penet, Pierre Pénét, Juan Flores Zendejas, 2021. Sovereign Debt Diplomacies revisits the meaning of sovereign debt in relation to colonial history and postcolonial developments. Catalogue Nevins Memorial Library (Methuen, Mass.), 1887. The Intercollegian, 1909. American Book Prices Current, 1895. A record of literary properties sold at auction in the United States. Bulletin of the School of Oriental Studies, London Institution, 1928.
