Necessary Lives Biographical Reflections:

Necessary Lives Benjamin Lawrence Reid, 1990 A collection of works on classical biography and autobiography this book includes essays on authors such as Boswell Johnson Keats and T S Eliot Reid examines writers of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries in order to demonstrate the essence of life showing what it is to be human Biography Nigel

Hamilton, 2010-03-30 For what purpose and for whom has biographical pursuit endured and how does it play such a contested popular role in contemporary Western culture Award winning biographer Hamilton addresses these questions in an incisive and vivid narrative that will appeal to students of human nature and self representation across the arts and sciences A Modern Poetics of Biography Zhengrun Yang, 2025-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive study of biography to summarize the standard forms as well as a range of peripheral and expanded forms of auto biography Discussion and analyses to be done at three levels namely ontology typology and writing It is drawn from local and international theories in biography in addition to related disciplines in particular for those of the twentieth century and summarizing the experiences of the writing of classics in both Chinese and Western biographical history the study establishes a theoretical system of biography This book can serve as a useful reference for postgraduate students and professional readers who are interested in biographical research How To Do Biography Nigel Hamilton, 2012-10-22

Following his recent Biography A Brief History from Harvard award winning biographer and teacher Nigel Hamilton tackles the practicalities of doing biography in the first succinct primer to elucidate the tools of the biographer s craft Auto/biography in Canada Julie Rak, 2009-08-02 Auto biography in Canada Critical Directions widens the field of auto biography studies with its sophisticated multidisciplinary perspectives on the theory criticism and practice of self community and representation Rather than considering autobiography and biography as discrete genres with definable properties and rather than focusing on critical approaches the essays explore auto biography as a discourse about identity and representation in the context of numerous disciplinary shifts Auto biography in Canada looks at how life narratives are made in Canada Originating from literary studies history and social work the essays in this collection cover topics that range from queer Canadian autobiography autobiography and autism and newspaper death notices as biography to Canadian autobiography and the Holocaust Grey Owl and authenticity France Th oret and autofiction and a new reading of Stolen Life the collaborative text by Yvonne Johnson and Rudy Wiebe Julie Rak s useful big picture introduction traces the history of auto biography studies in Canada While the contributors chart disciplinary shifts taking place in auto biography studies their essays are also part of the ongoing scholarship that is remaking ways to understand Canada The Meaning of Lives Richard A. Hutch, 1997 This study examines how the process of reading and writing other people s lives implicates readers and authors in what is ultimately an endeavour of autobiographical introspection and reflection The book starts from the assumption that the use of writing and reading about individual lives in recent scholarship in religion the human sciences and literary biography has greatly revived interest in the personal concrete and meaningful side of the study of world religions
