Negotiating National Identity:

Negotiating National Identity Jeff Lesser, 1999 A comparative study of immigration and ethnicity with an emphasis on the Chinese Japanese and Arabs who have contributed to Brazil's diverse mix Negotiating National Identity Karim K. Mezran (politicalologist), 2003 Understanding National Identity David McCrone, Frank Bechhofer, 2015-03-26 Investigates the concept of national identity based on twenty years of empirical evidence Negotiating National Identities Christian Karner, 2016-04-22 Negotiating National Identities presents an empirically detailed and theoretically wide ranging analysis of the complex political and cultural struggles taking place in contemporary Europe Taking contemporary Austria and her controversial identity politics as its central case study in a discussion of developments across a variety of national and pan European contexts this book demonstrates that neo nationalism has been one among several competing reactions to the processes and challenges of globalization whilst inclusive notions of identity and belonging are shown to have emerged from the realms of civil society and cultural production Shifting the study of national identities from the party political to the social cultural and economic realms this book raises important questions of human rights social exclusion and ideological struggle in a globalizing era drawing attention to the contested nature of European politics and civil societies in which existing configurations of power and exclusion are both reproduced and challenged As such it will be of interest to anyone working in the fields of race and ethnicity national identity and media and cultural studies Negotiating National Identity Jeffrey Lesser, University of California, San Diego. National Identity, Nationalism and Constitutional Change F. Bechhofer, D. McCrone, 2009-07-08 What does it mean to say you're English Scottish British Does it matter much to people Has devolution and constitutional change made a difference to national identity Does the future of the UK depend on whether or not people think they are British Social and political scientists answer these questions vital to the future of the British state Immigration, Ethnicity, and National Identity in Brazil, 1808 to the Present Jeff Lesser, 2013-01-21 This book examines the immigration to Brazil of millions of Europeans Asians and Middle Easterners beginning in the nineteenth century National Identity and Europe in Times of Crisis Christian Karner, Monika Kopytowska, 2017-08-29 Europeanness is challenged by the multiple crises and debates happening across the continent There is long standing disagreement over Europe's boundaries and politicians and citizens continually reflect on the EU's past present and future This book analyses such reflections and political struggles in a variety of national and local contexts Negotiating Ethnic Diversity and National Identity in History Education Helen Mu Hung Ting, Luigi Cajani, 2023 This edited book explores the problems and challenges of negotiating the representation of ethnic minorities within history education It investigates how states balance the non acknowledgement of the reality of cultural or religious diversity and the promotion of a point of convergence in history education to foster national identity Shifting our attention away from the intractable challenges posed by post conflict countries for reconciliation the contributors draw attention to the need to explore ways to prevent or pre-empt conflicts and exclusion through history education which could contribute to developing a more sustainable culture of peace. Drawing on a wide range of contexts and sources, this book asks how history education could contribute to forming critical, historically informed and committed young citizens. The book will be of interest to students and academics working on themes such as nationalism, citizenship, ethnicity, history education, multicultural education, peace studies and area studies, as well as practitioners in the fields of history, social studies, civic or citizenship.

Helen Ting Mu Hung is Associate Professor and Senior Research Fellow at the Institute of Malaysian and International Studies, National University of Malaysia (UKM). Besides history education, her other research interests include national integration, multiculturalism, nationalism, gender and politics, identity and agency, and the politics of national identity.

Luigi Cajani is a retired Professor of Early Modern History at the Faculty of Letters and Philosophy, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy. Negotiating National Identity Karim K. Mezran, 2002 Negotiating National Identity on Newspaper Opinion Pages in Times of Crisis Mervat Abd Al Raouf Youssef, 2008 Negotiation and Construction of National Identities Karim K. Mezran, 2007

Drawing from the study of the political development of the four states of the Maghreb, this book finds that the crisis of identity that has occurred in some of them is due to the lack of negotiation on the national identity among elites at the time of independence.

Constructing National Identity in Keri Hulme's "The Bone People" Vivienne Jahnke, 2016-02-26

Master's Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies / Literature, grade 1.3, University of Leipzig, language English, abstract: This thesis analyses New Zealand writer Keri Hulme's novel The Bone People and argues that she speaks to the core of her country's postcolonial identity crisis and in doing so compels her fellow New Zealanders to confront the social reality in their country and to enter into the discourse of who they want to be as a nation. Accordingly, this thesis is going to analyse Hulme's writing strategies from a postcolonial viewpoint, exploring matters of identity construction on an individual as well as on a national level. Does her novel succeed as literature partaking in the nation-building process? A brief excursion into the realm of theory will provide the necessary framework for the analysis. After the in-depth discussion of The Bone People, a comparative approach in the form of a closer look at some contemporary New Zealand writers dealing with New Zealand's postcolonial condition will provide additional depth. Works from some of New Zealand's most renowned authors, Witi Ihimaera, Patricia Grace, Alan Duff, and Eleanor Catton, will be compared to The Bone People. Finally, a conclusion shall be drawn as to exactly how far New Zealand has come in its development as a country of bi- or even multiculturalism since the publication of The Bone People. It shall be discussed whether or not the novel's vision is one still relevant to New Zealand national identity today, whether the momentum the Maori gained in their agenda to revitalise their culture out of which Hulme's novel has sprung had more than just a ceremonial effect on the country and consequently how Hulme's vision is holding up to the reality of New Zealand in the twenty first century Urban Space and National Identity in Early Twentieth Century São Paulo, Brazil Cristina Mehrtens, 2010-10-15 Public and Private Crossed Paths In the Paulista Process of Urban Consolidation The Dynamics of Paulista Urban Institutions In the 1930s The Making of Urban Middle Class Employees In the 1930s The Symbolic Construction of Paulista Urban Identity Politics and Urban Change The Pacaembu Scheme 1933 1940 Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration Elena Marushiakova, 2008 Opens a debate on the changing notions of identity in the region of Central and Eastern Europe on the base of analysis of social developments influenced by EU accession and EU integration process Negotiating Identities Helen Vella Bonavita, 2011 Preliminary Material Tourism Self Representation and National Identity in Post Socialist Hungary Ir n Annus Black Magic Women On the Purported Use of Sorcery by Female Foreign Domestic Workers in Singapore Audrey Verma Staying True to England Representing Patriotism in Sixteenth Century Drama Helen Vella Bonavita How Australian Muslims Construct Western Fear of the Muslim Other Lelia Green and Anne Aly Fatwa and Foreign Policy New Models of Citizenship in an Emerging Age of Globalisation Ron Geaves Choosing to Be a Stranger Romanian Intellectuals in Exile Oana Elena Strugaru Infinite Responsibility for the Other in Emmanuel Levinas and Anne Michaels Fugitive Pieces Joshua Getz The Breaking Asunder of Fanny Kemble Trauma and the Discourse of Hygiene in Journal of a Residence on a Georgian Plantation in 1838 1839 Winter Werner Ancient Egypt as Europe's Intimate Stranger Kevin M DeLapp Fictions of a Creole Nation Re Presenting Portugal's Imperial Past Elsa Peralta Negotiating National Identity Emily W.
