Excerpt from The Negro Question But political strength is little by itself The military maxim that no defences are strong without force enough in them to occupy their line is true of civil affairs Entrenchment in the letter of a constitution avails little with the people at large on either side of a question unless the line of that entrenchment is occupied by a living conviction of being in the right The most ultra southern position on the negro question has an element of strength close akin to this To be right is the only real meces sity but where is the community that will not make and defend with treasure and blood the assumption that what is necessary is Right Southerners in the political sense of the term may sometimes lack a clear firm founded belief that they are right they may have no more than a restless confidence that others are as wrong as they but they have at least a profound conviction that they are moved by an imminent unremitting imperative necessity Not that this is all hundreds of thousands of them incapacitated by this very conviction from falling into sympathy with the best modern thought have been taught and are learn ing and teaching not only on the hustings but in school in college at the fireside through the daily press in the social circle and in church that in their attitude on the negro question they are legally morally and entirely right About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Melick, 2017-12-23 Excerpt from Some Phases of the Negro Question In the North we met the best class of negroes well dressed as waiters and porters where for twenty five cent tips they are very polite and obliging They lack the initiative and the power to lead but are imitative and the majority of them can be taught to skillfully perform certain lines of work and under the direction of more intelligent white men become valuable laborers A few negroes in an environment of hustling western whites are far superior to those of a population of one third negroes in the South In the South we see them in groups of hundreds ragged Dirty Ignorant and having a pungent sickening odor About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
