Mānoa ,2011

James Lee Burke and the Soul of Dave Robicheaux Barbara Bogue,2006-09-05 When he created the character Dave Robicheaux author James Lee Burke lent the New Orleans homicide detective a few of his own characteristics a daughter named Alafair a lifetime struggle with alcohol his Roman Catholic faith and his love for fishing and the outdoors On the other hand Robicheaux is portrayed as a veteran of the Vietnam war something Burke never experienced firsthand Yet the demons Burke has known allow him to write convincingly about demons he never knew Thus Burke has created a realistic complex and compelling protagonist for his crime fiction series That depth is one element that elevates Burke s writing above the status of genre fiction This book explores how James Lee Burke through the first person narrative of detective Dave Robicheaux probes the world of law and order crime and disorder and one man s internal conflicts with modern moral issues The first chapter reveals the similarities and differences between real life creator and fictional protagonist Next chapters arranged by theme explore the roles of women Robicheaux s paternal side as revealed through his adopted daughter the paternal influences in the detective s own life and the contrasting personality of his half brother Jimmie The next chapters probe the roots of the detective s moral dilemmas his battle with alcohol the Vietnam war s lingering trauma and religion Next the author explores Burke s use of the supernatural sense of place and music to deepen his stories Final chapters delve into Robicheaux s moral quandaries as a law enforcement officer the character's contrast to his reckless and funny partner Clete and how Burke reveals truths about life through Robicheaux. An interview with Burke is included. Neon Rain Sean Reynolds, Dominique Dickey, Bruce Cordell, 2025-06-30 Angel and the Bear Brian Charlton, 1979 A pinball wizard stars in this urban romance set where the blues meet jazz in London Ontario's historic York Hotel New York, 2007 Willeford Don Herron, 1997 This is an extensive critical appreciation of the life and writings of an American novelist who is a master of the absurd and one of the finest writers in the tough guy genre Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 Acts and Shadows Philip K. Jason, 2000 The imaginative literature of the Vietnam War participates both overtly and covertly in a struggle for national memory. First generation Vietnam War literature focusing on representations of combat and life in the battlefield strove to give testimony to write history. Later writings in their range of genre and style investigate and interrogate the very meaning of war. To reflect these two stages Philip Jason divides his newest book of literary criticism into two sections: acts and shadows. In Acts Jason provides formal and cultural readings of combat narratives by such authors as James Webb, Larry Heinemann, and Joe Haldeman and explores the meaning of authenticity as applied to Vietnam War texts. Shadows looks both forward and backward from the combat zone, challenging the parameters of what we define as Vietnam War literature.
