Procurement can be your company's secret weapon for winning in turbulent times In most companies procurement is an unglamorous unloved part of the business A job in the procurement office A fast track to nowhere Sourcing and supplier management is strictly about costs the thinking goes and all that matters is playing hardball to get these as low as possible No connection to innovation or strategy or creating positive value Not so fast As Boston Consulting Group thought leaders Christian Schuh Wolfgang Schnellbacher Alenka Triplat and Daniel Weise explain in Profit from the Source procurement should be regarded in a new light because it has the potential to be a CEO's secret weapon in these fast moving disruptive times The authors offer a wake up call and a new strategic blueprint for leaders everywhere With vivid stories and in depth case studies they illustrate that no other business function offers the same holistic view of a company from suppliers who provide the organization with raw materials and components to consumers who buy the finished product While it's true that a core task of any procurement function is to keep costs from spiraling out of control the authors show how procurement can help businesses generate phenomenal value from five other sources of competitive advantage critical to success innovation quality sustainability speed and risk reduction Drawing on BCG research and the authors firsthand experience working with some of the world's leading companies in high tech automotive consumer goods and many other industries Profit from the Source provides proven strategies to drive new bottom line as well as top line growth for your company
