Modern Canoe:

Canoe Nation Bruce Erickson,2013-06-15 More than an ancient means of transportation and trade the canoe has come to be a symbol of Canada itself In Canoe Nation Bruce Erickson argues that the canoe's sentimental power has come about through a set of narratives that attempt to legitimize a particular vision of Canada that overvalues the nation's connection to nature From Alexander Mackenzie to Grey Owl to Pierre Elliott Trudeau the canoe authenticates Canada's reputation as a tolerant environmentalist nation even when there is abundant evidence to the contrary Ultimately the stories we tell about the canoe need to be understood as moments in the ever contested field of cultural politics Canoeing and Camping James A. Cruikshank,1915

Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of North America Edwin Tappan Adney,Howard I. Chapelle,2007-10-17 The bark canoes of the North American Indians particularly those of birchbark were among the most highly developed manually propelled primitive watercraft Built with Stone Age tools from available materials their design size and appearance were varied to suit the many requirements of their users Even today canoes are based on these ancient designs and this fascinating guide combines historical background with instructions for constructing one Author Edwin Tappan Adney born in 1868 devoted his life to studying canoes and was practically the sole scholar in his field His papers and research have been assembled by a curator at the Smithsonian Institution
