Ethics of Liberal Democracy Robert P. Churchill,1994 Democracy is emerging as the political system of choice throughout the world Peoples now freed from the shackles of totalitarian systems seek to share the benefits made possible by democracy in its home bases in North America and Western Europe Yet paradoxically in the last decade liberal democracy has been subjected to an onslaught of criticism from thinkers at its home bases Criticisms of democracy have been informed by scholarship in feminism postmodernism and communitarianism as well as the revived interest in applying ethics to public policy These criticisms raise important questions about the traditional values liberalism neutrality or equality autonomy and human rights thought to justify democracy They also raise questions about the success of democratic systems in promoting alternative values and in protecting lifestyles not desired by majorities This anthology contains essays by authors at the forefront of the controversy as well as by acute observers of the processes by which democratic public policy is formed The essays include criticisms of democratic theory and practice defences of liberalism the set of values often thought to ground democracy calls for major revisions of democratic institutions and practices and recommendations for new ways of understanding our rights and responsibilities as members of democratic communities Show More Show Less     San Francisco Bay Harold Gilliam,1957 The history life and lore of California s vital inland sea intimately detailed by a feature writer of the San Francisco chronicle Spurred Ambition Twist Phelan, 2007-09 After her first attempt at breaking and entering business attorney Hannah Dain heads for the cliffs of Pinnacle Peak Arizona to rock climb and winds up in the middle of an anti Indian protest turned violent She escapes but makes an enemy To make things worse a shocking family revelation sends her on a hunt for someone who has been gone for almost thirty years Then Hannah meets Tony Soto Hannah is beguiled by the Native American Latino who is passionately committed to the betterment of his tribe Is Tony an innocent victim or is he part of an elaborate financial hoax where more than money is at stake Can Hannah unravel the scheme and find the key to the mystery of her past This is the action packed sequel to Family Claims
