

OLAF STAPLEDON

NEBULA MAKER & FOUR ENCOUNTERS

Illustrated by Jim Starlin

A man stands on a small, green, rocky island in the middle of a vast, swirling nebula. The nebula is composed of deep blues and purples, with bright white and yellow star-like points scattered throughout. The man is looking towards the right, with his arms slightly outstretched. The overall scene is one of a fantastical, otherworldly landscape.

Olaf Stapledon,1983 To science fiction romaner Olaf Stapledon Harvey J. Satty,Curtis C. Smith,1984-10-24 Harvey J Satty and Curtis C Smith have painstakingly assembled a complete bibliographic description of the literary career of an author they rank among the giants of twentieth century science fiction Following a biographical preface they have recorded all of Stapledon s independent English language publications In addition to complete descriptions of all first editions citations are given for later editions omnibus volumes and books to which Stapledon contributed chapters or poems The dust jackets of all first editions and books to which Stapledon contributed are described in detail giving the reader unique insight into the manner in which Stapledon s books have been presented A previously unpublished Stapledon work The Peak and the Town is included in the bibliography An allegorical autobiography it depicts the author s view of his own life A brief secondary bibliography concludes the book The comprehensive author index provides further access to this bibliography of the intricate body of Stapledon s work

Darwin Among The Machines George B. Dyson,2012-09-04 As timely now as it was when it was first published in 1997 Darwin Among the Machines tells the story of humankind s long journey into the digital age Historian of technology George Dyson traces the course of the information revolution illuminating the lives and work of visionaries from Thomas Hobbes to John von Neumann who foresaw the development of artificial intelligence artificial life and artificial mind Weaving a convincing occasionally frightening narrative of the evolution of the global network Dyson explores the limits of Darwinian evolution to suggest what lies ahead Computer programs and worldwide networks are combining to produce an evolutionary theater in which the distinctions between nature and technology are increasingly obscured he argues We are living in the midst of an experiment one that echoes the prehistory of human intelligence and the origins of life Now in a new paperback edition this classic work on the emergence of collective mechanical intelligence will resonate for generations to come

Science Fiction and Fantasy Book Review Neil Barron,R. Reginald,Robert Reginald,2009-11 Science Fiction Fantasy Book Review was founded in 1979 to provide comprehensive coverage of all the major and minor books being released in the genre at that time This was the golden era of SF publishing with a thousand titles old and new hitting the stands and the bookshelves each and every year From the older classics to the newest speculative fiction this was the period when the best and the brightest shined forth their talents SF FBR included reviews by writers in the field by amateur critics and by litt rateurs and University professors Over a thousand books were covered during the single year of publication many of them having been reviewed no where else before or since The January 1980

issue includes a comprehensive index of all the works featured during the preceding year This reprint will be a welcome addition to the literature of science fiction and fantasy criticism Neil Barron is a retired bibliographer and literary critic editor of the acclaimed Anatomy of Wonder series Robert Reginald was the publisher for twenty five years of Borgo Press and has authored over 110 books of his own

Olaf Stapledon Robert Crossley,1994-07-01 William Olaf Stapledon is best remembered for the extraordinary works of speculative fiction he published between 1930 and 1950 As a novelist he was known as the spokesman for the Age of Einstein and has influenced writers as diverse as Virginia Woolf Arthur C Clarke and Doris Lessing This biography is the first to draw on a vast body of unpublished and private documents interviews

correspondence archival material and papers in private hands to reveal fully the internal struggles that shaped Stapledon s life and reclaim for public attention a distinctive voice of the modern era Late in his life in an unpublished letter to the future

Stapledon unwittingly provided the rationale for his biography It is just possible that my very obscurity may fit me to speak more faithfully for my period than any of its great unique personalities A pacifist in World War I an advocate of European unity and world government one of the first teachers in the Workers Educational Association and an early protestor against apartheid Stapledon turned utopian beliefs into practical politics With roots in the shipping worlds of Devon Liverpool and the Suez Canal he was transformed from a self described provincial on the margins of English literary and political life into a visionary idealist who attracted the attention of scientists journalists and novelists and given his left wing political affiliations even the F B I Stapledon s novels Last and First Men Star Maker Odd John and Sirius have gathered a passionate following and they have seldom been out of print in the last twenty five years But the personal experiences and political commitments that shaped this creative work have until now barely been known Robert Crossley s work reveals how in public and in private in his social activism as in his fiction Olaf Stapledon embodied many of the modern era s anxieties and hopes that allow his works to continue to speak to and for the future
