Fels draws on case studies research interviews and autobiographies of accomplished and celebrated women past and present writers artists architects politicians actors to explore the ways in which women are brought up to avoid recognition and visibility in favor of traditional feminine values and why they often choose to nurture and defer to rather than compete with men. She poses invaluable questions: What is the nature of ambition and how important is it in a woman's life? What are the forces that promote or impede its development? To what extent does ambition go against a woman's very nature? And she challenges currently held theories about the state of mind and the needs of men. Incisive and highly readable Necessary Dreams is a unique exploration of the options and obstacles women face in the pursuit of their goals. Jensen, 2022-12-13 In Writing Ambition: Literary Engagements between Women in France Katharine Ann Jensen analyzes the work of three pairs of women writing in French: Genlis and Lafayette Colette and Annie de Pne and Nancy Huson and Le la Sebbar to assess how their literary ambitions affected their engagements with each other. Focused on the psychological aspects of the women's relationships the author combines close textual readings of their works with attention to historical and biographical contexts to consider how and why one or both women in the pair express contradictory or anxious feelings about literary ambition.
