

Negotiate With Confidence

Prepare For Questions

The interviewer may ask questions that feel intimidating but remember they are asking these questions to understand why your qualifications and salary needs.

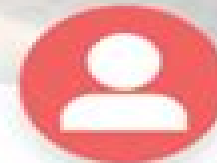

The Interviewer is Used to This

You should not feel embarrassed for bringing up the topic. Many employers appreciate it when candidates are confident enough to start that conversation.

Remember Your Why

Negotiating pay can be tied back to your value as a professional. Always remember to never sell yourself short!

Don't Take it Personally

You may not be able to negotiate your dream salary, just know that an employer's resistance to your offer doesn't reflect poorly on your value as a person.
