Neo Rauch:

Neo Rauch Neo Rauch, 2008 One of his generation's most influential and virtuoso painters Rauch continues the rich tradition of Leipzig figurative painting Rauch does not rely on existing imagery or models for his paintings and while some begin as tiny sketches he works his imagined scenes directly onto the canvas Neo Rauch Réal Lussier, Patrice Loubier, Neo Rauch, Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal, 2006 Neo Rauch Neo Rauch, Robin Clark, 2003 Neo Rauch Norman Rosenthal, Jacob Grimm, Wilhelm Grimm, 2014 At the Well produced to coincide with an exhibition of Neo Rauch's new works at David Zwirner in New York brings together both small and large format paintings that expand the artist's unique iconography of eccentric figures animals and hybrids within vaguely familiar but imaginary settings This oversized catalogue designed in close collaboration with the artist is anchored by sixteen stunning plates and numerous 11 details that bring to life and gives viewers intimate access to these compelling compositions Themes of rebirth and new beginnings abound Rauch consistently creates characters who appear to be in the process of transformation literally on the brink of renaissance These figures though squarely centred in his paintings often have the appearance of being part of still lifes collaged anachronistic elements belonging to different time zones and eras offer a contemporary take on the storied tradition of visual and psychological pastiche In addition At the Well features an illuminating essay by art historian and curator Sir Norman Rosenthal who presents a careful reading of Rauch's new work including its relationship to fairy tales the influence of the German Democratic Republic on his development as an artist in the 1980s and the overarching sense of alienation that is present within his narratives The book also includes a reprint of the classic Brothers Grimm fairy tale The Young Giant specifically chosen by Rosenthal to further expand his analysis Neo Rauch Neo Rauch, Wolfgang Büscher, 2009 Neo Rauch Neo Rauch, Gottfried Boehm, 2006 In a lakeside scene a man leans on a graphic of an arrow as if it were a rake handle in the garden tentacles rise from the shoreline and rectangular speech bubbles hang empty in the yellow sky In a Dali-esque interior the corner of a comforter drips off a bed This major new overview of the work of the Leipzig painter Neo Rauch makes once again the case that he is one of the most important artists of his generation He remains committed to putting brush on canvas in an age when digital media are gaining ground and among a crowd of similarly dedicated colleagues he stands out at the forefront While his work of the 1980s was influenced by Expressionism his more recent portfolio revels in a new take on Socialist Realism clearly shaped by the experience of growing up in the former East Germany Rauch riffs on the once mandated styles of his youth and on western abstraction from the second half of the twentieth century all in coloration and figuration that directly allude to the Socialist past Between cartoon styling and historic technique he has found a distinctive style palette and concept These dreamlike sequences feel both timeless and deeply rooted Rauch gathers figures from the past in surreal landscapes and interiors to tell enigmatic stories about the present Currents 90 Neo Rauch, Robin Lee Clark, St. Louis Art Museum, 2003 Neo Rauch: PROPAGANDA, 2019-09-03

One of the most influential figurative painters of his generation Neo Rauch presents bold new work in PROPAGANDA Rauch is widely celebrated for his captivating compositions that bring together figurative painting and surrealism into an entirely new kind of visual encounter They often hint at broader narratives and histories seemingly reconnecting with artistic traditions of realism but they remain dreamlike and impossible to reduce to a single story Though his art is highly refined and executed with great technical skill Rauch himself stresses the intuitive deeply personal nature of how he works As the artist notes My process is far less a reflection than it is drawing from the sediments of my past which occurs in an almost trance like state Eight large scale canvases and seven smaller more intimately scaled works continue the artist s exploration of figuration and the ambiguous nature of meaning in visual art In some of the larger works the saturation of the canvas with characters objects and forms all rendered at different scales and in conflicting arrangements creates a collage like quality a figurative scrapbook of Rauch s personal iconography The publication features a short story by acclaimed novelist and playwright Daniel Kehlmann which was inspired by the paintings in this book The fantastical text moves between present day New York and an unknown time of enchanted forests knights and witches exploring the many layers found in Rauch s canvases Published on the occasion of the artist s solo exhibition at David Zwirner Hong Kong in 2019 Neo Rauch PROPAGANDA is available in both English only and bilingual English traditional Chinese editions

Neo Rauch Neo Rauch, 2002 Neo Rauch was born in Leipzig in 1960 where he still lives today He is one of the most original artists of his generation His paintings appear disturbingly detached and familiar for their figures objects and mood seem to come from old advertising posters dusty book covers or forgotten comics Rauch s formulistic visual symbols suggest a more profound meaning yet it is difficult to decipher their message The tension lurking under the almost frozen surface is fuelled by paradox As vivid as the structure of the work comes across the impression is rigid As powerful as the broken color are they appear faded of yesterday In 2002 Neo Rauch received The Vincent The Vincent Van Gogh Award for Contemporary Art In Maastricht This publication marks the occasion of this award and forms the first comprehensive presentation of the artist s oeuvre with 65 works from 1993 to 2002
