Netherlandish Sculpture 1450-1550 Paul Williamson, Victoria and Albert Museum, 2002 One of the very few books available on this subject in English this volume presents a selection of the best and most representative works from the Victoria and Albert Museum's extensive collection of late medieval Netherlandish sculpture Ranging from small single figures and devotional altar carvings to full scale altarpieces the book looks not only at these fine sculptures themselves but at their social and artistic context as well The result is a splendidly illustrated general introduction to the subject accessible to all those interested in medieval art as well as to students and scholars The principle categories of sculptural production are all represented from the free standing figure the altarpiece and the small scale devotional aid Subjects range from statues of the Virgin and Child to narrative reliefs Materials vary from alabaster and stone to woods such as oak walnut and boxwood

Actors Carved and Cast Ethan Matt Kavalier, 2024-09-17 Painting has long dominated discussions of Netherlandish art Yet in the sixteenth century sculpture was held in considerably higher regard than painting especially in foreign lands This beautifully illustrated book is the first comprehensive study of sixteenth century Netherlandish sculpture and it opens an important window onto the works and milieu of these artists Netherlanders dominated the sculptural world of northern Europe They made the most prestigious tombs and altarpieces alabaster reliefs and boxwood collectibles for patrons throughout Iberia France and Central Europe Even in Italy they were a formidable presence the most famous sculptor in Europe in the second half of the sixteenth century was Giambologna a Fleming who spent the greater part of his career in Florence A great many of these artists immigrated to foreign courts so many that the history of Netherlandish sculpture in the second half of the sixteenth century plays out largely abroad Netherlandish carvers and casters relocated to what are today Austria Denmark England France Germany Italy Poland Portugal Spain Sweden and Ukraine Sculpture more so than painting was an essential tool in discourses of power Offering an essential new perspective on a fascinating period in art history Actors Carved and Cast will appeal to scholars of sculpture and all those interested in Northern Renaissance art
