Hammaming in the Sham Richard Boggs, 2022-07-01 Legend has it that Damascus once had 365 hammams or Turkish baths one for each day of the year. Originally part of an ancient Roman tradition hammams were absorbed by Islam to such an extent that many became almost annexes to nearby mosques. For centuries hammams were an integral part of community life with some fifty hammams surviving in Damascus until the 1950s. Since then however with the onslaught of modernization programs and home bathrooms many have been demolished fewer than twenty Damascene working hammams survive today.

In Hammaming in the Sham Richard Boggs travels the length and breadth of modern Syria documenting the traditions of bathing in Damascus Aleppo and elsewhere and his encounters with Syrians as they bathe. In his portrayal of life in the hammams he reveals how these ancient institutions cater for both body and soul and through his conversations with the bathers within he provides insights into the grass roots of contemporary Syrian society. Approximately 140 color photographs accompany the text portraying the traditional neighborhoods of Damascus and Aleppo and the almost religious feel of the hammams. The author's intimate portraits of the baths employees and bathers show a unique side of Syria rarely exposed to the outside world Syria Neil Quilliam,1999 Annotation This annotated bibliography of materials relating to Syria considers a wide array of documents addressing the country s prehistory archaeology people geology flora and fauna society politics foreign relations economy statistics literature education architecture and a dozen other features Includes an introductory essay by the compiler a researcher at King Abdul Aziz U Saudi Arabia While most references are written in English a few are included from Arabic and French sources Indexed by author title and subject Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Middle East and Africa Trudy Ring,Noelle Watson,Paul Schellinger,2014-03-05 This five volume set presents some 1 000 comprehensive and fully illustrated histories of the most famous sites in the world Entries include location description and site details and a 3 000 to 4 000 word essay that provides a full history of the site and its condition today An annotated further reading list of books and articles about the site completes each entry The geographically organized volumes include Volume 1 The Americas 1 884964 00 1 Volume 2 Northern Europe 1 884964 01 X Volume 3 Southern Europe 1 884964 02 8 Volume 4 Middle East Africa 1 884964 03 6 Volume 5 Asia Oceania 1 884964 04 4 The Oxford Encyclopedia of Archaeology in the Near East Eric M.
