Monuments To Faith Ukrainian Churches In Manitoba:

Monuments to Faith Basil Rotoff, Roman Yereniuk, Stella Hryniuk, 1990-04-01 Ukrainians first came to Canada a century ago seeking a new life on the western prairies. They brought with them an ancient and rich cultural tradition deeply rooted in Christianity. The most visible symbol of this tradition is the Ukrainian church with its distinctive cupolas. As soon as the settlers were established in the new land they began to reshape their environment by building churches in the styles they remembered from their homeland. In this richly illustrated volume the authors trace the continuity of tradition in architecture, art and community life from Ukraine to the parishes of the Manitoba prairie. In a detailed examination of the exteriors and interiors of forty nine churches the book establishes a typology of Ukrainian church designs. Biographies of the architects, master builders and artists are included along with a guide to the art and architecture of a Ukrainian church.

Exploring Everyday Landscapes Annmarie Adams, Sally Ann McMurry, 1997 Drawn from two conferences of the Vernacular Architecture Forum one held in Charleston in 1994 and the other in Ottawa in 1995. Back cover Immigration and Settlement, 1870-1939 Gregory P. Marchildon, 2009 Immigration and Settlement 1870-1939 includes twenty articles organized under the following topics: the Opening of the Prairie West, First Nations and the Policy of Containment, Patterns of Settlement and Ethnic Relations and Identity in the New West. The second volume in the History of the Prairie West Series, Immigration and Settlement includes chapters on early immigration patterns including transportation routes and ethnic blocks as well as the policy of containing First Nations on reserves. Other chapters grapple with the various identities, preferences and prejudices of settlers and their complex relationships with each other as well as the larger polity.

Legacy of Worship Margaret Hryniuk, Frank Korvemaker, 2014-10-01 This highly anticipated companion volume to the best selling Legacy of Stone Saskatchewan's Stone Buildings combines brilliant colour images of the buildings people worship in with the fascinating stories of those places and people. Legacy of Worship profiles over 60 rural churches representing 15 spiritual denominations. The writer-photographer team that brought you the award winning Legacy of Stone has scoured the province for sacred places that illustrate the finest of Saskatchewan's art and design. Rural religious gathering places often display the work of folk artists and craftspeople as well as that of professional artists and architects. They are the last repository of primitive art and such crafts as weaving, metal smithing, needlework and furniture making. This book presents sacred places that illustrate how beauty in any form inspires and nurtures the soul. They demonstrate the universal, eternal need for art and beauty and the importance of valuing and protecting the religious heritage so important to our identity and our proud place in Canada.

Storied Landscapes Frances Swyripa, 2010-09-01 Storied Landscapes is a beautifully written, sweeping examination of the evolving identity of major ethno-religious immigrant groups in the Canadian West. Viewed through the lens of attachment to the soil and specific place and through the eyes of both the immigrant generation and its descendants the book compares the settlement experiences of Ukrainians, Mennonites, Icelanders, Doukhobors, Germans, Poles, Romanians, Jews, Finns and Swedes.

Norwegians and Danes It reveals how each group's sense of identity was shaped by a complex interplay of physical and emotional ties to land and place and how that sense of belonging influenced and was influenced by relationships not only within the prairies and the Canadian nation state but also with the homeland and its extended diaspora Through a close study of myths symbols commemorative traditions and landmarks Storied Landscapes boldly asserts the inseparability of ethnicity and religion both to defining the prairie region and to understanding the Canadian nation building project

Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people, institutions, organizations, publications, art, literature, languages, and history. It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities. These large divisions are then broken down by subject, genre, type of document, and province or territory. Titles of national, provincial, territorial, or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name, title, French subject, and English subject. And to facilitate browsing, the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross-referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content, arrangements, and indexing of works, the availability of non print formats, previous editions, and title changes, and related works. Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers.
