

A photograph of a pagoda at night, illuminated with warm lights, set against a deep blue sky. A full, bright yellow moon is visible in the upper left. The pagoda and the moon are reflected in a body of water at the bottom of the frame, which is also illuminated with a soft blue light. The overall scene is serene and contemplative.

Shambhala Sun, 2004 Tricycle, 2003 The Publishers Weekly, 2003 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04 Buddhist-Inflected Sovereignties across the Indian Ocean Anne M. Blackburn, 2025-01-31 Buddhist Inflected Sovereignties across the Indian Ocean draws attention to the varied historically contingent and sometimes competing arguments for and about sovereignty that operated in the Pali arena during the first half of the second millennium AD. It was a time of expanding interaction within the Indian Ocean just prior to Portuguese colonial presence in Southern Asia. Developing a linked series of case studies and examining territories now subsumed within the nation states of Sri Lanka, Burma, Myanmar and Thailand, Blackburn examines sovereign arguments expressed textually as well as in the built environment by persons with an interest in the teachings and institutions associated with Gotama Buddha. These cases show that no single model of Buddhist-inflected sovereignty dominated the Pali arena during this time and that there was no stable vision of Buddhist kingship. Rather, over time, there was an accrual of possible models and pathways for argumentation about how sovereigns could and should relate to buddha s sanna. Taking inspiration from diverse sources transmitted through multiple forms and media, arguments for and about sovereignty in the Pali arena were contested and rapidly changing. As the Indian Ocean increasingly shaped the flow of people, objects and ideas, more peoples and territories participated in the Pali arena, attracted by its intellectual and aesthetic resources. Drawing on extensive scholarship and a wide range of multilingual source materials from premodern Sri Lanka, Burma, Thailand and Cambodia, Anne M. Blackburn develops innovative conclusions about the relationships between textuality, sovereignty, maritime connectivity and material culture in each of these areas. The book contributes simultaneously to several fields of study: the intellectual history of Southern Asia, literary and historical scholarship on Buddhism and historical studies of the Indian Ocean. By offering accessible yet in-depth analysis, Buddhist Inflected Sovereignities across the Indian Ocean connects research fields and introduces new interpretive possibilities for the study of sovereignty, politics, premodern textual cultures and Buddhism.

Children of Silence and Slow Time Ian McCrorie, 2012. Written with the wisdom, humility and humor of one who has taken the time to examine themselves and the nature of the human condition, this new collection of story poems regards concerns of the experienced meditator. The thoughtful and insightful poems serve as both inspiration and motivation to others who are trying to walk the path of self-discovery. Each one serves to nourish the spirit while also providing a fresh kind of sustenance.
