Moon Glowing:

Silent Whispers Beneath the Moon's Glow M Vyshnavi Sree,2025-01-18 Reading books was never my cup of tea I never liked to sit before books for a long period of time and read it for days and days But when I reached high school I was very fascinated to write articles because in my school that would go in the magazine Seeing my classmates getting selected for different literature activities made me grow interest in writing So after my 10th maybe in the month of August i wrote my first poem POTRAIT OF THE SOUL slowly I started to mould words in sentences and then tried rhyming with each My friends and family encouraged me to write I really thank my parents for always being my cheerleaders Not to forget my biggest thank you is to all my english teachers who had thought me to improve my language skills A very big thanks to my High school English teacher MISS RACHEL DANIEL who always supported and corrected my poetry A special thanks to NOTION PRESS team for making my dream book happen Above everything else I would thank God for giving me this ability At last a big thank you to all my lovely readers for giving time to my book I am sure you will all connect to it JAI SHREE RAM The Moon Richard Anthony Proctor,1898
