The Moon Maiden and Other Japanese Fairy Tales Grace James,2012-05-04 DIVThirty beautifully illustrated stories provide delightful accounts of The Singing Bird of Heaven The Star Lovers The Peony Lantern The Sea King and the Magic Jewels and 26 other beguiling tales div The Moon-Maiden - A Japanese Fairy Tale Anon E. Mouse,2018-10-02 Once upon a time a long long time ago and far far away in Japan it was early spring on the coast of Suruga A rose tinged cloud from heaven had fallen softly on the branches of a cherry tree Save for the lap of the sea there was silence on that remote shore A far off sound became audible it might be the song of falling waters it might be the voice of the awakening wind it might be the melody of the clouds Slowly imperceptibly the music came nearer Above the lofty heights of Mount Fujiyama a snow white cloud floated earthwards Nearer and nearer came the music A low clear voice could be heard chanting a lay that breathed of the peace and tranquillity of the moonlight The fleecy cloud was borne towards the shore For one moment it seemed to rest upon the sand and then it melted away By the sea stood a glistening maiden In her hand she carried a heart shaped instrument and as her fingers touched the strings she sang a heavenly song She wore a robe of feathers white and spotless as the breast of the wild swan Birds flocked around her they perched on her shoulder and rubbed their soft heads against her cheek She stroked them gently and they flew away full of joy The maiden hung her robe of feathers on a pine branch and went to bathe in the sea So why had the beautiful maiden come to earth What was her purpose Was she bringing a message or was she here to just watch and listen Well to find out why she had fallen to earth you'll have to download this story and find out for yourself Baba Indaba is a fictitious Zulu storyteller who narrates children's stories from around the world Baba Indaba translates as Father of Stories Each issue also has a WHERE IN THE WORLD LOOK IT UP section where young readers are challenged to look up a place on a map somewhere in the world The place town or city is relevant to the story HINT use Google maps Search for the 400 Baba Indaba Children's stories on Google Search for Baba Indaba Children's Stories or using the ISSN 2397 9607 to get the full list 10% of the profit from the sale of this book will be donated to charities This book INCLUDES LINKS TO DOWNLOAD 8 FREE STORIES Japanese Fairy Tales Grace James,2024-03 Japanese Fairy Tales by Grace James presents a captivating collection of traditional stories rooted in Japanese literature and folklore Grace James masterfully brings to life a rich tapestry of cultural heritage weaving together enchanting fairy tales mythical creatures and age old legends Within the pages of this anthology readers embark on a journey through the depths of Japanese mythology encountering supernatural creatures and exploring moral lessons embedded within each narrative James storytelling prowess shines as she guides readers through magical realms filled with adventure and fantasy captivating audiences of all ages These timeless tales serve as a window into Japanese cultural exploration offering insights into the values traditions and beliefs that have shaped Japan's heritage As children's literature these stories not only entertain but also impart valuable lessons and foster imagination Through Japanese Fairy Tales Grace James invites readers to immerse

Ko ji ki or Record of Ancient Matters which contains the mythology of Japan. Herein you will find stories like Green Willow The Flute The Sea King And The Magic Jewels The Peony lantern The Robe of Feathers The Bell Of D j ji The Moon Maiden The Cold Lady A Legend Of Kwannon The Singing Bird of Heaven and many many more all with a uniquely Japanese flavour made more appealing by Warwick Goble's many exquisite illustrations. Many were told from memory being relics of childish days originally heard from the lips of a school fellow or a nurse. Certain of them again form favourite subjects which have been represented upon the Japanese stage and are still short and entertaining enough to hold a child's attention without them becoming bored. A few of the stories now gathered together have been translated into English and have previously appeared in one form or another yet others will probably be new to the 21st C Western reader. 10% of the net profit from the sale of this book will be donated to charities.
