The Moon Metal Garrett Putman Serviss,2020-03-27 A seam of gold which can be cut with a knife has been found within ten miles of the south pole The discovery of the pole itself had been announced three years before and several scientific parties were known to be exploring the remarkable continent that surrounds it But while they had sent home many highly interesting reports there had been nothing to suggest the possibility of such an amazing discovery as that which was now announced Accordingly most sensible people looked upon the New Zealand despatch as a hoax
