Moore Le Maure:

The Concert Song Companion Charles Osborne, 2012-12-06 W HAT I H A V E attempted in this book is a survey of song the kind of song which one finds variously described as concert art or sometimes even classical song Concert song seems the most useful certainly the least inexact or misleading of some descriptions especially since art song sounds primly off putting and classical song really ought to be used only to refer to songs written during the classical period i e the 18th century Concert song clearly means the kind of songs one hears sung at concerts or recitals Addressing myself to the general music lover who though he possesses no special knowledge of the song literature is never theless interested enough in songs and their singers to attend recitals of Lieder or of songs in various languages I have naturally confined myself to that period of time in which the vast majority of these songs was composed though not necessarily only to those composers whose songs have survived to be remembered in recital programmes today I suppose this to be roughly the three centuries covered by the years 1650 1950 though most of the songs we as audiences know and love were composed in the middle of this period in other words in the 19th century
