Finding Your Moral Compass Craig Nakken, 2011-11-01 For those of us in recovery finding our moral and spiritual footing can be a struggle. The pursuit of drugs and alcohol has long driven our choices and actions leaving the line between right and wrong blurred in the wake of addiction. He encourages us to show empathy be of service to others and make the choice to stop being an agent of harm. When Nakken a former addict became clean and sober he faced the evil inside of himself. It was then that he found his moral compass and made the decision to take responsibility for his actions using the Twelve Steps as his guide. He has taught hundreds in recovery to live by the principles of good one day at a time.
