Christian Ethics and Contemporary Moral Problems Michael C. Banner, 1999-09-28 This book addresses such key ethical issues as euthanasia the environment biotechnology abortion the family sexual ethics and the distribution of health care resources Michael Banner argues that the task of Christian ethics is to understand the world and humankind in the light of the credal affirmations of the Christian faith and to explicate this understanding in its significance for human action through a critical engagement with the concerns claims and problems of other ethics He illustrates both the distinctiveness of Christian convictions in relation to the above issues and also the critical dialogue with practices based on other convictions which this sense of distinctiveness motivates but does not prevent The book's importance lies in its attempt to show the crucial difference which Christian belief makes to an understanding of these issues whilst at the same time demonstrating some of the weaknesses and confusions of certain popular approaches to them The Truth About Moral Issues Don

Philip Wogaman, 1989-05 In this book J Philip Wogaman presents his belief that in the uncertainty surrounding most moral questions religious faith makes a difference in one's ethics He explains how Christian character is fundamental to decision making and that it is possible to arrive at judgements on today's complex moral problems in light of Christian faith This book includes chapters on the centrality of moral character and virtue as well as on the contribution of theology to ethics From publisher's description Why We Fail as Christians Robert Hunter, 1919 The Congregationalist and Christian
