Ontologized Ethics Elvis Imafidon, John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji, 2013-11-21

Ontologized Ethics New Essays in African Meta Ethics examines an often neglected meta ethical issue in African philosophical discourse the extent to which one's orientation of being or idea of what is as an individual or as a group of persons does or should determine one's concept of the good To what extent is ethics or our idea of what is permissible or impermissible grounded on ideas of what fundamentally exists or what it means to be The aim of this collection of essays with emphasis on an African philosophical context will be to establish more firmly and vigorously whether there is an intrinsic link between ontology and morality that is whether and if so how the proper norms for human actions can be explained and validated once we make lucid ideas about metaphysical topics such as human nature community relationality and spirituality The essays included in this volume focus rigorously on ethical issues such as communalism adultery environmental ethics and bioethics with the primary aim of showing whether the link between such issues and metaphysical beliefs is trivial or intrinsic

Tradition and Modernity Kwame Gyekye, 1997-08-28 In this important and pioneering book Kwame Gyekye examines postcolonial African experience from a viewpoint receptive to aspects of both traditional African cultures and Western political and moral theory African people in their attempt to evolve ways of life compatible with an increasingly globalized world cultural intellectual and political scene face a number of unique societal challenges some stemming Gyekye argues from traditional African values and practices others representing the legacy of European colonialism Enlisting Western political and philosophic concepts to clear comparative advantage Gyekye addresses a wide range of concrete problems afflicting postcolonial African states such as ethnicity and nation building the relationship of tradition to modernity the relationship of the nation state to community the nature of political authority and political legitimization political corruption and the threat to traditional moral and social values practices and institutions in the wake of rapid social change With striking flexibility and rare insight Gyekye assesses the value of both traditional and non African cultural components for the future of African societies and proposes alternative social and political models capable of forging a modernity appropriate for Africa The resulting book Tradition and Modernity Philosophical Reflections on the African Experience is a brilliant new contribution to postcolonial theory and will be of deep interest to scholars of political and moral philosophy cultural studies and African philosophy and politics and to anyone else concerned with the efforts of non Western societies to properly modernize Philosophy and Politics Dukor, Maduabuchi,2015-09-04 This book is a collection of essay on socio political issues in post colonial Africa It is an attempt to make contemporary philosophy transcend the frontiers of contemption abstruseness and solipsism to analytical engagement on society Unexamined life is not worth living says Socrates I think thereof I exist says Rene Descartes Since the end of the Second World War colonialism and Cold War eras social change and globalisation have demanded a change of political and social attitudes in favour of pluralism and democracy in Africa Hence he discourse on values institution and struggle for power I Africa The inter disciplinary approach makes this book an interesting text for general readers political activists politicians administrators statesmen as well as students of philosophy history politics and law Regulating Morality Hans Krabbendam,H.-M. D. ten Napel,2000 The purpose of this volume is to compare the experiences of state efforts to control moral behavior in two countries The Netherlands and the United States of America by exploring the historical developments in regulating morality and the contemporary efforts to implement moral policies The volume opens with an overview of the theoretical and historical setting of the debate about moral developments in the Netherlands and the United States Various hypotheses are then tested by comparing the histories of prostitution and abortion policies in both countries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the jurisprudence and legislation with respect to euthanasia and the course and contents of family law divorce adoption homo marriage Apart from the comparative aspect these case studies are highly informative and fascinating to read in and by themselves

The Moral Revolution of 1688

Dudley W. R. Bahlman,1968 Philosophy Culture and Vision: African Perspectives Gyekye, Kwame,2014-05-08 Believing that the intellectual enterprise called philosophy is essentially a part of the cultural as well as historical experience of a people that the concepts and problems that occupy the attention of philosophers placed in different cultural spaces or historical times generally derive directly from those spaces and times and that philosophy in turn has been most relevant to the development of human cultures the Ghanaian philosopher Kwame Gyekye gives reflective attention in this book to some of the concepts and problems that in his view feature most prominently in the contemporary African cultural social political and moral experience Such concepts and problems include the following political legitimacy development culture and the pursuit of science and technology political corruption democracy representation and the politics of inclusion the status of cultural values in national orientation understanding globalization and others It is these topics that are covered in the essays collected in this book The unrelenting pursuit of the speculative activity by the philosopher in most cases eventuates in normative proposals these normative proposals often embody a vision a vision of an ideal human society in terms of its values politics and culture Vision understood here has human not supernatural or divine origination and involvement and requires action by human beings in order for it to come into reality A vision may derive from sustained critical evaluation of a culture or some elements of it Gyekye attempts an articulation of the visions of the essays contained in the book Even though philosophical ideas and concerns are originally inspired by and worked out in a cultural milieu it does not necessarily follow Gyekye strongly believes that the relevance of those ideas and insights is to be tethered to the cultures that produced them For more often than not the relevance of those ideas or at least some of them transcends the confines of their own times and cultures and can be appreciated by other societies or cultures or generational epochs This trans cultural or trans epochal or meta contextual appeal or attraction of philosophical ideas and insights spawned by a particular culture or cluster of cultures or in specific historical times is to be put down to our common human nature including our basic human desires and aspirations Thus most of the essays published here should be of interest to the global community i.e to cultures and societies beyond the African Manifesto for a Moral Revolution Jacqueline Novogratz, 2021 In the Morningland John S.

Pritchard, 1991 Pritchard provides a deliberate and convincing argument for a starting point for the discussion of moral development on in which self regard and empathy provide equally essential groundings for individual morality Drawing essential elements from the work of Reid Strawson Rawls Kohlberg and Gilligan he builds a comprehensive framework for tracing moral development from childhood one that allows human morality to be grounded in both reason and emotion and that recognizes the importance to morality of justice and rights as well as caring and responsibility
